FORCED OUT BY STEAM.

Sail Boats Are Back Numbers on the Ocean.

The Century Old Firm of Trowbridge's Sons Decides to Retire From Shipping Business.

New York, Jan. 4.—The Recorder's New Haven special says: The noted shipping house of H. Trowbridge's Sons, renowned throughout the country for nearly a century as having been engaged in the West India trade, has decided to dissolve partnership, and steps to that effect are now being taken.

Since 1860 the business of the concern has been centered in New York city, and its fleet of vessels has since then sailed from that port.

Previous to that New Haven was the fleet's port of entry and departure. Henry, Thomas R., William R. H. and Rutherford Trowbridge are the older members of the firm, all of them sons of the late Thomas R. Trowbridge, who died five years ago.

The reason for the change is understood to be the competition between sail and steam navigation. It is not unlikely that a new firm will be organized out of the old and steam vessels substituted.

RAWLINGS FOR SHERMAN.

Bushnell and McGrew Could Not Hold Him.

He Comes Out in a Card to Support the Greatest Republican in the Buckeye State.

Columbus, Jan. 4.—(Special)—At noon to-day the Sherman managers flaunted in front of the Foraker crowd a letter from Senator Rawlings saying he would support the greatest republican living in Ohio—Sherman.

This has caused considerable consternation in the ranks of the followers of Foraker, as it was understood that Gen. Bushnell and McGrew could keep him in line for Foraker.

Sherman men claim they will have 41 members in the house and 14 in the senate.

It is nearer the truth to say that unless a serious break is made in the ranks of the followers of Foraker, Sherman will not have over 51 in caucus, four more than enough to nominate.

In the organization of the house committees it is said a deal has already been made whereby four votes can be secured for Sherman.

Every card is being played by the Sherman men.

WAS IT DYNAMITE?

Heavy Explosion in St. Louis To-Day.

The Rear End of a Non-Union Bakery Completely Ruined and One Man Badly Injured.

St. Louis, Jan. 4.—A report like the roar of artillery shook the business portion of St. Louis at 6:45 this morning. Sashes rattled in windows, panes of glass cracked as if there were an earthquake, and numerous citizens were routed out of their morning nap.

The thunders emanated from the rear of 301 South Front street where the bakery of H. J. Miller is, or rather was, located, for the rear end of that structure was knocked into smithereens by the explosion of what was supposed to be a dynamite bomb thrown against the wall.

Frank Bach, an employe, had just opened the shop and was making preparations for his day's work, when the explosion occurred, throwing him violently to the floor in the midst of flying bricks, mortar, wood and glass.

He lay there, insensible and bleeding from numerous cuts, and in which condition he was found by Patrolman Goetz.

Goetz, hearing the explosion, rushed to the scene. "As soon as I had rung for the ambulance," said he, "and picked up Bach, who seemed dazed and badly cut, I started to hunt up the cause of the trouble.

"It looked to me as if a dynamite cartridge had been placed under the window by some one in the alley and then ignited."

About three years ago a strike was organized among the bakers of St. Louis. All the workmen employed in Miller's are said to be non-union men. The police think there may be some connection between these facts and the explosion. The police are working on this theory.

THE CHILL WINDS

From Mansfield's Icy Mountain

Swept Down the Foraker Valley

With All the Effect of a Killing Frost,

And Froze the Marrow in Their Bones.

Echoes From the Republican Caucus Which Show Beyond a Doubt That Sherman Will Once More Succeed Himself in the United States Senate.

Columbus, Jan. 4.—(Special)—The outcome of the caucuses held on Saturday afternoon demonstrated what these dispatches claimed many days ago: That Foraker had the noise, but that Sherman had the votes.

Laylin's nomination was secured by the exact number of votes—38—which Chairman Hahn claimed he would have, and the wild, fiery talk of the Foraker followers proved to be as unreliable as their leader is windy.

Not alone do the Foraker leaders feel chagrined at the result, but the followers, poor misguided youths in politics, who would not listen to the kindly and fatherly talk from such old time wire pullers as

Speaker L. C. Laylin.

James M. Brown, Col. Walforf and Hon. C. A. Flickinger, find that they have made a grevious mistake.

They have gone outside the political enclosure, which is now more secure than ever, and have said such unpleasant things about Senator Sherman, and have called so many people liars, that to get back once more under the wing of their party will be a harder task than it was for the prodigal son to get fat on corn husks. And the husks that will be left by the Sherman people will prove very poor picking to the Forakerites.

Senator Sherman told Foraker's friends some time ago that the little man from Cincinnati was being deceived, and he can repeat the information once more for his benefit.

Senator Sherman has enough votes to elect him now, and if he had needed any more the placing of the speakership in the hands of a Sherman man made the getting of them easy, for there are many "non-committal" members whose preference on the senatorial question can be swayed by the assurance from Laylin that they would receive appointments as chairmen of the many much-coveted committees.

And the fact that the members will have to be recognized by Laylin before they cut much of a figure on the floor will also work to Sherman's interest, for he has given it out solid that this is a war of extermination against Forakerism in Ohio, and the people who don't get into the Sherman band wagon will have a long and stony road to travel, much harder to cover than the famous Rocky road to Dublin.

The full caucus nominations of the two branches are as follows:

The Speaker of the House.

Hon. Lewis C. Laylin was bron at Norwalk, O., September 28, 1848. His father, John Laylin, was one of the first settlers on the "Fire Lands," and a soldier of the war of 1812. He lived and worked on his father's farm, attending school in the winter until he graduated from the Norwalk High school in 1867.

He taught country schools two winters, and in 1869 was elected superintendent of public schools of Bellevue, O., to which position he was unanimously re-elected for six successive years. He began the study of law with Judge C. E. Pennewell, now of Cleveland, and on March 13, 1876, he was admitted to the bar. He was elected city clerk of Norwalk, serving two years; appointed and served as a member of the county board of school examiners of Huron county 12 years, of which board he was clerk 10 years; was president of the board of city examiners of Norwalk for three years. He was secretary of the Huron County Agricultural society three years, and has always been actively identified with its interests.

In 1879 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Huron county, and served three terms, seven years in all. On November 3, 1880, he was married to Francis L., youngest daughter of John F. Dewey, a prominent citizen and active republican of the county.

Mr. Laylin was elected to the legislature in 1887. During the sixty-ninth general assembly he served on the house judiciary committee, and was chairman of the blind asylum committee; also was a member of the state centennial committee. He was unanimously renominated for representative in 1889, and elected a member of the late democratic sixty-ninth general assembly.

Some Claims.

Senator Sherman, while claiming that the speakership contest result removed all doubt of his election from his mind, admitted that there may have been a number of votes cast in the speakership contest on personal friendship grounds.

The Foraker men claim, however, that not a single Sherman man voted for McGrew, while at least five anti-Sherman men, including Dicks, of Cincinnati, who will vote for Foster for senator, and Welsh, of Knox county, who will vote for McKinley, cast their ballots for Mr. Laylin.

While the speakership caucus was an open one the ballot on that question was a secret one, so no one knows how any member voted, except by his own confession.

If the Foraker men are right, of course Sherman's strength in the house is at least six votes less than the Laylin strength.

Sherman will have 13 votes in the senate if Iden, a contestant, who will undoubtedly be seated, is not admitted to the caucus, and 14 if he is given a vote. Foraker claims 8 votes in the senate, but there is no ground for the claim.

Conceding the Foraker claims in the house, which may be correct, Sherman would have 32 votes there and the 14 in the senate would give him in all 46, or one short of enough to nominate, while Foraker would have three short of enough to nominate. Welsh and Dicks are supposed, of course, in this estimate, to vote for McKinley and Foster respectively. They would be able to elect Sherman, or tie him with Foraker.

Another estimate places Foraker's strength at 38 in the house and seven in the senate, total 45. If Iden were deprived of his vote in the senate, Sherman's vote under this estimate would fall to 44. Welsh and Dicks voting for Foraker ultimately as they probably would do, would give Foraker the necessary 47 votes and nominate him.

It will be seen that much may depend upon the admission of Iden to the caucus, and there will no doubt be a preliminary fight over it. He was admitted to the republican senate caucus Saturday and this will be used as a precedent.

It is now likely that the senatorial caucus will be held to-morrow night instead of Wednesday, as already announced. The first vote on senator by the two branches of the legislature will be taken one week from to-morrow.

GEN. MEIGS DEAD.

SENECA COUNTY MARRIAGES.

Tiffin, O., Jan. 4.—Marriage permits were issued by Judge Royer, of the probate court of Seneca county, during the year 1891 to the number of 367; in 1890, 346; and in 1889, 330.

WASHINGTON PERSONALS.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Assistant Secretary Crounse, of the treasury department, has returned from Nebraska.

YOUNG LOVE'S DREAM.

A Tiffin Couple Who Did Not Elope.

The Parents Were Too Diplomatic and Prevented the Couple From Running Away.

Tiffin, O., Jan. 4.—Parental opposition neatly frustrated the marriage of two young people who are well-known in this city and vicinity, a few days ago. William Young, a well-to-do farmer, won the affections of Miss Callie Rickenbaugh, a pretty school teacher residing with her parents a few miles east of Tiffin. Her parents opposed their marriage and the young people determined to wed without their consent.

The lady is visiting her sister in Albion, Ind., and they had arranged to consummate their bliss in that city on the first day of the year. The expectant groom was on his way to the Hoosier state when the young lady's parents learned of the object of his trip.

They telegraphed him at Defiance, withdrawing their objections and promising their daughter a wedding at home if he would return and wait until the necessary arrangements could be made.

Taking them at their word the young man returned and the marriage did not occur. It is believed that the promise of the parents was only to frustrate the wedding and that they will still refuse their consent, but this will not deter the young people from carrying out their wishes, for they are determined to marry and will do so with out the parental consent if it is not given upon the return home of the daughter next week. The affair is the talk of the town and the result is awaited with no little interest, as all the parties concerned stand high in the community.

WANTED GOULD'S GOLD.

The Crop of Cranks Continues to Increase.

Very Clever Arrangements Made by a Crank to Get a Nice Sum of Money Without Being Caught.

New York, Jan. 4.—For some time past threatening letters have been received by the Gould family, which were evidently written by a well educated German. The writer was evidently well acquainted with Jay Gould's career.

The letters gave dates as far back as 1870 and related incidents connected with the partnership between Mr. Gould and Jim Fisk and their government of the Erie railroad.

They went on to speak of an accident on that road in which the writer's father and mother were injured, for which he demanded the sum of $10,000. The writer stated that if the $10,000 was not given up forthwith, Mr. Gould was liable to be blown up in his office, or while walking in the street or riding in his carriage.

The request was made that the money be forwarded to a certain address in Canada, a hotel being mentioned there. Inspector Byrnes was notified and he dispatched two detectives to Canada.

They visited the hotel in question and learned from its proprietor that he had instructions to forward such letters to a certain town in New Jersey.

Instructions had been subsequently left not to open the letters, but to have them re-addressed to some place in this city, but just where the police refuse to make known.

The authorities refuse to give any further particulars regarding the affair or what their researches have brought to light. They are still at work on the case, however. Both George and Edwin Gould were seen in regard to these threatening letters, but they would say nothing for publication.

SOPER'S STEALINGS.

He Had a Liking for Towels and Typewriters.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 4.—The committee appointed to investigate the conduct of ex-Secretary of State Soper has made exhaustive reports, finding that Soper had distributed, contrary to law, 942 volumes, costing the state $1,613. He made purchases of folding beds, springs, mattresses, rugs, towels, blankets, typewriters and desks to the amount of $921, all of which is declared unnecessary and extravagant.

There is practically no evidence showing that he has profited personally by these purchases or received any money for distributing the books. There are but few letters found showing that state funds have been misappropriated, but the committee says that Soper took away with him at least 500 letters of that character, and the amount of misappropriations can never be determined.

No evidence to show the receipt of commission upon purchases for the state is presented. Soper bought 61,191 pounds of paper at a cost to the state of $3,112.89, which will not be used until after the legislature of 1893 meets.

He took $200 for expenses of trip to the Upper Peninsula as a member of the state board of equalization, while other members drew but $88.30. He charged and was wrongfully allowed per diem compensation while upon business of the state.

PULITZER IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Newspaper circles here are discussing a well defined rumor that Pulitzer is about to start a Chicago paper on as gigantic a plan as the New York World is operated on. The Chicago World company has been incorporated with $4,000,000 capital stock, and the New York journalist is believed to be the moving spirit in the deal.

TOOK AN OVERDOSE.

Cincinati, Jan. 4.—Lizzie Smith, a well known variety actress with the Williams troupe, died suddenly yesterday from an overdose of medicine prescribed by Dr. R. D. McArthur, of Chicago. It is supposed the excessive quantity affected her heart. She and her husband formed the sketch team of Lizzie and Larry Smith.

SPRINGER IN THEIR WOOL

He Is "Loading Up" for the Battle to Come.

Treasury Statistics Will Cut a Big Figure.

The Democratic House This Session Will Furnish No End of Trouble for the Republican Party and Its Leaders.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Mr. Springer, chairman of the ways and means committee, is putting in a great deal of time "loading up," as he calls it, on the tariff facts and figures. He has made a careful study of the reports issued by Statistician Brock, of the treasury department and is carefully outlining the policy that will be pursued by his committee in the way of tariff legislation.

"These statistics show some strange things," said Mr. Springer to-day.

"You know this McKinley bill was to suit the farmer, and under it he is supposed to get all that protection which the republican party promised him.

"The tariff was put up on wool and woolen goods. This was intended, as they claimed, to keep out foreign competition and give the American wool growers a chance, but what is the result?

"According to the figures of the treasury department, during the nine months ended October 31, under the McKinley bill, as compared with the preceding nine months, we find that there has been an increase—not a decrease—in the amount of wool imported into this country, amounting to the unprecedented figures of 35 per cent., and, on top of this, wool fell from 2 to 3 cents a pound in value in America.

"Thus it appears that while the republicans promised less foreign competition and a higher price to the farmer for his wool, under the very provisions of the measure upon which it was promised, wool went down in price, and more than ever was known in this country before came from abroad.

"That was rather rough on the farmer who was told all this, and it is just such things as this that the democrats will endeavor to correct."

ECHOES OF THE SCANDAL.

Baccarat Still a Topic of Comment.

A Pamphlet in Circulation in London Attacks the Prince and Lady "River."

London, Jan. 4.—There have been several serious interviews recently between Lord Salisbury, the Prince of Wales and Lord Charles Beresford with relation to a mysterious pamphlet which has been in circulation in high social circles for some time.

It is a most virulent attack on the Prince of Wales, Lady Brooke, and others with names carelessly concealed, Lady Brooke, for instance, being referred to as Lady River. Only 57 copies of this pamphlet were issued and they were type-written, because the author could not get a printer in London to do the work.

The pamphlet has been freely canvassed and discussed so openly, indeed, that among others the duchess of Manchester at a luncheon party read it aloud to her guests.

As a result of the conferences between the Prince of Wales and Lord Salisbury and Lord Charles Beresford diligent search has been made for the copies, which after being bought were instantly destroyed. All save three of the documents have been secured, and one of these is missing and is said to be in America. It may interest people to know that the names of Lord and Lady Beresford continue to be included in the invitations that are sent out from Marlborough hall.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Morristown, Tenn., Jan. 4.—The hotel Godfrey was burned at Greenville yesterday. Barney Foster, a painter from Roanoke, Va., was burned to death before he could make his escape.

DIED IN HIS BATH ROOM.

New York, Jan. 4.—Robert W. Donnell, aged 60 years of the firm of Donnell, Lawson & Simpson, bankers, at No. 100 Broadway, died suddenly this morning in his bath room in his house at 15 East Sixty-Seventh street.

THE TILDEN WILL.

White Plains, N. Y., Jan. 4.—Surrogate Coffin to-day granted an application by the Tilden heirs to compel the executors of the Samuel J. Tilden estate to render an accounting and settle up the estate, and fixing a day for the filing of the report of the executors.

SECRETARY FOSTER.

NOW THEY'RE OFF.

A Great Republican Scramble Commenced.

Organization of Both Houses Perfected.

Neither Gaumer Nor Iden Were Seated.

Their Case Referred to a Special Committee.

Governor Campbell's Message Presented to Both Houses and Read—It Is the Shortest Public Document of the Kind Recorded.

Columbus, O., Jan. 4.—Both branches of the general assembly were called to order at 10 o'clock this morning and the organization outlined in the republican caucus of Saturday effected without incident.

The senate did not seat either Iden or Gaumer, the contesting claimants of the seat for the Muskingum district, but appointed a committee to investigate the matter.

The governor's message, which is the shortest on record, was received and read. It is as follows:

To the Seventieth General Assembly:

"The constitution commands the governor to communicate annually his views to the general assembly.

"As this function will doubtless be well and fully discharged one week from to-day, by the incoming governor, the present incumbent confines himself to a renewal of the suggestions and recommendations made by him to the Sixty-ninth general assembly.

"Especial attention is called to the benevolent, penal, reformatory and educational institutions of the state, and to the satisfactory exhibits made by the various public bodies in their recent annual reports.

"JAMES E. CAMPBELL,
"Governor."

DOINGS IN DETAIL.

Iden's Case Referred to a Strong Sherman Committee.

Columbus, Jan. 4.—(Special)—President Marquis called the senators to order and Senator Nichols acted as clerk. The oath of office was administered by Judge Spear, of the supreme court, in blocks of ten.

Senators McConica and Snyder were absent.

The usual preliminary resolutions on organization were adopted, as well as one providing for the counting of the vote cast for state officers last November, when both branches will assemble in the hall of the house and canvass the same.

Seats were selected by lot, except that the old members were allowed to select first.

Mr. Shaw took the seat of the late Senator Adams and the other old senators took seats occupied by them last session.

Senator Phillips, of Adams, played jumping jack in the senate this morning by continually jumping up and asking that the contest between Gaumer and Iden be referred to Senators Nichol, Carpenter and Forbes, and they report to-morrow morning.

The republicans on this committee are pronounced Sherman men and want Iden in, in time for the caucus to-morrow night.

Senators Vancleaf, Gear, Nichol, Carpenter of Meigs, and Hildebrand were appointed as committee to report resolutions on the death of the late Senator Adams.

A recess was taken until 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Secretary of State Ryan called the new house of representatives to order and Representatives Kesseinger and Ryan acted as secretaries.

Members were sworn in by Chief Justice Williams, of the supreme court, in double blocks of five.

As soon as sworn in the roll was called and all answered to their names except Mr. Axline.

As soon as Speaker Laylin was elected Representatives Price and McGreeves escorted him to the chair, when he spoke as follows:

"Fellow Members of the House of Representatives:

"I desire to acknowledge my sincere appreciation of the high honor conferred by my election to the speakership of this body.

"I realize the responsible and arduous duties that will devolve upon me by virtue of that election.

"The measure of my success as your presiding officer will depend chiefly upon your kind and cordial co-operation. You have been selected by your constituents, and to you they have confided the interests of your respective counties and of the state at large.

"The members on my left, as well as the members on the majority side of the chamber, will be alike recognized and aided in the performance of the trust committed to him by his constituents.

"We have all stood within the same circle and taken upon ourselves the same solemn oaths. Let us all be inspired by the same worthy purpose—an earnest desire to promote the peace, happiness and welfare of the people of this great state.

"Let me urge upon you the importance of enacting only necessary legislation.

"The member is not always the most useful whose measures are the most numerous. Too much legislation is more dangerous than too little legislation.

"There has been an alarming tendency of late toward local legislation which ought to be discouraged. Especially is this true of that class of legislation conferring upon municipalities and other political subdivisions, powers which both the letter and spirit are in conflict with the provisions of the state constitution.

"Let me urge what I trust all will approve—a careful consideration of the needs of all classes of our fellow citizens, prompt and conscientious action in the discharge of the public business, to the end that the honor, dignity and commanding influence of the commonwealth may be thereby maintained."

Resolutions and motions usually made on the organization of a legislature were adopted.

The house recessed and this afternoon seats were selected by lot.

Representatives McGrew, McElroy, Clapp, Price and Reiter were appointed committee to wait upon the governor and inform him that the legislature was organized and ready to receive any communication he might desire to communicate, and Senators Parker, Marshall and Clingman performed the same duty on the part of the senate.

Senator Gear had a rooster of flowers on his desk from the constituents of his district.

IN RAILWAY CIRCLES.

Two Lines Consolidated and Elected Officers.

Miss Pffolliott Paget as an Enchantress

In The Last Word—A Week with A Pair of Jacks—Some Dramatic Notes.

At the Wheeler opera house Wednesday evening Miss Ffolliott Paget and her excellent company will appear in Augustine Daly's successful comedy, "The Last Word."

The role of the Baroness Vera is said to be a thoroughly congenial one for an actress of Miss Paget's varied gifts and histrionic power. Vera is a woman in the sense that her nobility of character shines through all her varying moods and impulses. She can be coquettish, whimsical, piquant, diplomatic, witty, humorous, serious and pathetic in turn, but she is always lovable and adorable.

She places her future lover in a most ridiculous position for having ventilated his pedantic opinion about women, and "their little sly ways," but she entraps him into a confession so adroitly and exposes his pedantry with such sincerity and vigor that, instead of being chagrined at her ridicule, he ends by admiring her spirit and courage.

It is one of the very best that Mr. Daly has ever adapted. Its fame and Miss Paget's popularity should serve to crowd the house.

A Pair of Jacks.

John H. Havlin's Merry Farce Comedy company, in H. Grattan Donnelly's "A Pair of Jacks," will be at the People's all this week. The farce will be illustrated by comedians who will made the great American theater-going public laugh, vocalists who will delight the ear, specialists who will astonish and please, and dancers who charm by graceful motion. Every idea in "A Pair of Jacks" will be a novelty, and every novelty a delight.

H. Grattan Donnelly is the author of "Natural Gas" and "Later On" and, as a constructor of funny farces, he has few superiors. An eastern exchange recently spoke of the well-known author in the following glowing terms: "Any play, no matter under what head it comes as to its motive and action, in the broad classification applied to the drama, be it comedy or what not, if it comes with the brand: 'Donnelly,' is pretty sure to be well worth seeing. "A Pair of Jacks" is Mr. Donnelly's latest effort at amusing the populace and it has made a distinctive and decided hit."

Notes.

M. B. Leavitt's new spectacular pantomime and novelty combine, "The Spider and the Fly," will be presented at Wheeler's next Saturday evening, Dec. 9.

The "Danger Signal," with Miss Rosabel Morrison as the star, and supported by a good company, will be the attraction at the People's next week.

Stewart and his "Fat Men's Club" will be at Wheeler's Thursday and Friday, and promises much fun.

WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

A Costly Blaze in Westfield, New Jersey.

Westfield, N. J., Jan. 4.—A fire which started at 2 a. m. to-day in the frame building known as "Arcadian hall," at the corner of Broad and Prospect streets, quickly communicated to the Ferris building, adjoining, and thence to three more frame structures in the row and despite the efforts of the firemen all five buildings with their contents were destroyed.

The total loss is estimated at $40,000, with an insurance of $30,000.

Arcadian hall was owned by H. E. Taylor, of New York city, was occupied by the Leader and a number of societies. The Ferris building was occupied by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Schooner & Scudders' meat market and two other stores, also the office of the Standard. The other three structures were comparatively small and occupied by small retail store-keepers.

FOUND HIM GUILTY.

The Jury in the Graves Case Comes in.

A Verdict Rendered Against the Doctor of Murder in the First Degree.

Denver, Jan. 4.—The jury in the case of Dr. T. C. Graves have returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree. He was charged with sending Mrs. Barnaby a bottle of poisoned whisky, from which she drank and died. In Mrs. Barnaby's will was found a clause bequeathing $25,000 to the doctor.

Dr. Graves.

The first vote stood 9 to 3 for the first degree. The second stood 10 to 2 and the third was unanimous for conviction in the first degree. The jury was practically unanimous on this verdict from the start.

When the foreman pronounced the words, "murder in the first degree," the audience started to cheer, but a court baliff rapped for order and interrupted the demonstration.

The excitement was overwhelming. The court ordered two deputy sheriffs to take Graves to the criminal's cell awaiting him at the jail. When the irons were taken out to be locked on Dr. Graves' wrists he shuddered and begged for a few minutes more. The attorneys for defense filed a motion for a new trial. After being locked in his cell Dr. Graves broke down and cried: "I will never live to see another trial," he said, "even if one should be granted."

Then he said he wished Col. Ballou, the Providence lawyer, had never come out here to defend him. He attributed part of his conviction to him. When searched several bottles were found on him, which, he explained, contained harmless liquid. It is feared suicide will be attempted.

THE SHERIFF'S NEW DEAL.

At noon to-day Sheriff Stuart began the discharge of the duties of his office under a salary, as provided by the new law to that effect. Heretofore the sheriff has been compelled to advance appraisers' fees and printer's charges on execution sales, but under the new state of affairs these fees will have to be paid cash down or there will be no appraisement or sale.

A sheriff's salary fund will be created and all the proceeds of the office will be covered to this fund, out of which the salaries of the office will be paid. No work, no pay, will be the watchword. The county commissioners provide for the deputies and their salaries.

THE NEW SENATOR.

Brief Sketch of Bishop W. Perkins.

Topeka, Ks., Jan. 4.—(Special)—Senator Perkins, from Kansas, will hold his seat until 1893 as there is no probability of the present alliance legislature being called in extra session The new senator has served four terms in the house of representatives, having been elected from the third district of that state to the Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth and Fifty-first congresses. No important question came up during his service on which he did not have a decided opinion and this was freely and forcibly expressed. His vote was invariably recorded, and on all questions. When silver coinage was before congress he acted in accordance with the views of his constituents, which he made the subject of an able speech on February 27, 1889., entitled, "Silver, the World's Money of the Common People." His course was at variance with the policy of his party.

On substantially all party questions, however, he was an uncompromising republican, and lost no chance to score a point against the democratic party. Judge Perkins, as he has been called by his constituents, was an earnest worker. The old soldiers in his district received especial attention in congress, and Mr. Perkins was always ready to help them. His personal popularity was very great and his majorities were larger than those of any other men who have been elected from his district.

Mr. Perkins, outside of national politics, has held various important offices. He was born in Rochester, Lorain county, O., on October 18, 1841, and received a common school education, followed by a short period of instruction at Knox academy, Galesburg, Ill. He was an apt scholar, and early formed a liking for the legal profession. He was admitted to practice at Ottawa, Ill., in 1867.

When the war broke out and President Lincoln called for volunteers, young Perkins was one of the first to respond, and he served throughout the conflict. He entered the service as a sergeant in the Eighty-third Illinois infantry, rose to be adjutant, and then became captain in the Sixteenth United States colored infantry. After the war he went to Kansas and practiced his profession, in which he was very successful.

In 1869 he was elected county attorney of Labette county, and in the year following was chosen probate judge, to which office he was re-elected in 1872. In the following February Mr. Perkins was appointed judge of the Eleventh judicial district of Kansas, and held that position until he was elected to congress.

FURTHER RIOTS REPORTED.

The Salvation Army in a Fierce Battle.

Eastbourne Authorities Persist in Not Allowing the Meetings and Parades in the Streets.

London, Jan. 4.—There was further rioting yesterday at Eastbourne, as a result of a determination of the Salvation army to hold meetings there in spite of the fact that the authorities objected to it, and the courts had decided that the local officials were right in objecting to such meetings.

The salvationists have been in a state of active warfare with the town authorities of Eastbourne for some time past. But yesterday's riot was one of the most exciting on record.

The army upon this occasion divided itself into four sections and mustered in as many different parts of Eastbourne and resolved upon making a strong protest against what they classed as the feeling of religious intolerance which the local authorities are said to have displayed.

These divisions were surrounded by police who claimed that the salvationists would be prevented, at any cost, from holding meetings against the provision of what is known as the Eastbourne improvement act of 1885.

In spite of the police, however, a band of about sixty salvationists managed to march to the beach, followed by an immense crowd of people. Upon arriving at the water's edge, this detachment of the Salvation army knelt down on the sands and raised their voice in prayer while the crowd hooted and jeered at them.

DAVITT TO THE RESCUE.

He Writes on the Dublin Castle Explosion.

He Says the Insinuation That Patrick Ford Was at the Bottom of the Affair is Cowardly.

London, Jan. 4.—Mr. Michael Davitt has written a letter, which is published in the Times to-day, protesting that it is cowardly to insinuate that the recent explosion at Dublin castle might be traced to Patrick Ford.

Mr. Davitt says it is more probable "as the Times' friend Pigott is dead" that the newspaper referred to "has another agent whose duty it is to preach the gospel of dynamite as Pigott did the gospel of forgery."

Mr. Davitt also suggests that the explosion was due to one of the government menials "whose object was to influence the coming election in Rossendale."

It is said to be probable that Mr. Davitt will be a candidate for the representation of Wexford in parliament.

It is reported that Mr. Lewis J. Jennings, the representative of Stockport in parliament, a gentleman who is well known in the United States, has decided to retire and accept the Chiltern Hundreds. It is added that Mr. Jennings' references to the conservative party (of which he has been considered a member), over his nom de plume of "A Member of Parliament," in a New York newspaper, have much to do with Mr. Jennings' proposed retirement.

SCROFULA

Is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck; which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. If you suffer from scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, my little boy, three years old, being a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. We all took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and all have been cured of the scrofula. My little boy is entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy."

Day and Night School OPENS Monday, Jan. 4, 1892.

Which Business College or Shorthand School shall I enter Monday? I would suggest that you visit the different schools of the city Monday and Tuesday, spend at least two hours in each, hear the teachers, note methods. Do not decide too hastily. Do not pay your tuition until you have spent at least one week in a school. The Toledo Business College gives you this privilege. Do not enter a school because a position is held out to you. All the schools of the city will do everything in their power to assist worthy students to positions; it is to their interest to do so. Go to the school that you think is most thorough after you have made a careful examination. Remember the Toledo Business College has been under the management of Mr. Davis for 10 years. Mr. Davis is a graduate in Arts also, of the Eastman Business College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Location:

PLAYED BY POLICE.

A Big Sensation Sprung in Chicago.

Grave Charges Made Against the Officers.

It Is Claimed That the Anarchist Scare

Has Only Been Worked to Secure Blood Money.

The Citizens' Committee, Which Contributed Its Money so Freely, Has Called a Halt, and the Result is a Big Surprise to the Windy City Residents.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—The Herald this morning prints the following: "Strange stories are current about the recent police raid at Grief's hall. It is told that because of the refusal of wealthy members of a secret association to expend more money for the 'suppression of anarchy' the police—or certain fixtures in the department—proposed to show the subscribers to the secret fund that the 'social revolutionists' are not yet dead.

"In a long interview with a prominent citizen, an attorney of great prominence, whose clients are among the wealthy class, it is alleged that shortly after the Haymarket riot in May, 1886, three meetings of capitalists and business men were called through secret invitations, at which were subscribed sums aggregating $115,000, with pledges for an annual fund of $100,000.

It was agreed that this money should be spent in suppressing anarchy and that no specific statement of receipts or expenditures should be made of the committee controlling the fund. The interview continues:

"'Throughout the years that followed until last October we have all responded to the assessments of the finance committee of the citizens' movement. The latter part of the month of October a general meeting was held, and the finance committee was present in a body. No one knew why the meeting was called.

"'When we assembled the chairman of the finance committee made a speech. He said there was $57,560 in the treasury. The committee had not expended any money for a year, believing that anarchy was dead in Chicago. But during the last few days he had been approached by a certain police officer who declared that the 'reds' were about to break forth again. The policeman had demanded money.

"The committee refused to give it. The committee asked the sanction of the subscribers and it was freely granted. The fact that a policeman demanded money set three or four of us thinking and we, notwithstanding our agreement, began making inquiries.

"We find that during the years following the Haymarket riot there had been two police funds, that guaranteed by the city and one furnished by the citizens. From this latter fund, which had ranged from $50,000 to $140,000 annually, there had been drawn every dollar subscribed, except that of the last year.

"A few days before the raid on Greif's hall a demand for money had been made. The committee refused to advance another penny.

"The finance committee called another meeting immediately after the raid. There was no disguising of charges. That the raid was directly or indirectly instituted for the purpose of inspiring the men who had subscribed to the fund with the idea that the 'reds' were again on the warpath was set forth.

"We told the committee to balance its books, make a pro rata division of the funds still held by it and render a report of all money received and expended.

"The committee had anticipated us and had the report prepared. It showed that $487,000 had been expended.

"It will all come out some day," said a member of the citizens committee, "no matter how closely the members of the finance committee hold their tongues. Somebody has got rich out of this thing and the raid on Greif's hall was intended solely to bolster up the 'backsliding' subscribers to a fund from which policemen drew thousands of dollars."

DECREE IN A PATENT SUIT.

Judge Harmon this morning entered a decree for the defendant in the case of William A. Parks against Lettie Dixon et al.

The case involves the right to the patent on a steam pump. The defendant is the patentee and Parks claims an interest in the patent and Dixon claims that Parks is only entitled to an interest in the proceeds of the sale of the pumps.

THE VERDICT SUSTAINED.

Judge Harmon this morning overruled the motion for new trial in the case of Thomas Brandon against the Lake Shore Railroad company, which was filed by the defendant.

The action was filed March 8, to recover damages for personal injuries, and a verdict allowing the plaintiff $2,300 damages was returned October 20.

"No baking powder is gaining public favor so rapidly as Cleveland's."

'One reason is people like to know what they are eating, and the composition of Cleveland's baking powder is given on every label.

So many baking powders containing ammonia or alum are widely advertised as "absolutely pure," the best way is to refuse any brand the composition of which is concealed.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

The circuit court convened at G. A. R. hall this morning.

The Toledo Preachers' union met this morning, and was followed by a session of the Rest league.

The Genslein murder case was continued in common pleas court to-day, and the bail fixed at $3,000.

The county commissioners organized this morning for the ensuing year, and John L. Pray was elected president.

A motion for continuance was filed in common pleas court to-day in the case of the state against Julius Richards.

Charles E. Sumner was to-day appointed assistant prosecuting attorney for the next year, by the common pleas court.

A motion for leave to sue the receiver of the Toledo Mower and Reaper company was filed in common pleas court to-day by W. R. Hodge.

Judgment by default for $750 was entered to-day in the case of Nort Devare against John Milburn by Judge Harmon in common pleas court.

Judge Harmon to-day allowed $50 attorney's fees and $8 per week alimony, pending litigation in the divorce case of Jennie E. Turner against Clifton M. Turner.

The infirmary directors met at the farm to-day for purposes of organization. Mr. Reynolds becomes president, and there will be no change in the staff of officials.

The city to-day confessed judgment to $1,500 in the case of the city against Edwin Williams. This is the case that Mayor Emmick vetoed and the council passed over his head.

Rev. S. L. Roberts, pastor of the Third Street M. E. church, East Toledo, has arranged for the week of prayer, and each evening the meeting will be led as follows: Monday, Mr. Harris; Tuesday, Mr. Guthrie; Wednesday, Mr. Myers; Thursday, Mr. Eslougher; Friday, Mr. Owens; Saturday, Mr. Valentine. From 7:30 to 8:15 there will be prayer and song, and from 8:15 to 8:45 discussion of topic for the evening. The singing will be conducted by Miss Belle Barlow, and all are welcome.

IDEN WILL BE SEATED.

Sherman Men Are Forcing the Fight.

Caucus to be Held To-Morrow Afternoon.

As the Bee Goes to Press This Afternoon the Battle for the Senatorship is at a Foaming Heat.

Columbus, Jan. 4.—(Special)—3. p. m.—At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the Sherman men have become so bold that they demand holding the caucus to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock

For that purpose, Ohl, who presided in the senate caucus, and Doughterty, in the house caucus, with Speaker Laylin and President Pro Tem. Lamson, will hold a consultation this evening to decide on the time.

Three of the above are well known Sherman men, and one has not yet declared his position (Daugherty), but it is supposed he will be for Foraker on account of family relations.

Sherman senators have decided to give a seat to Iden without any contest, so that his vote can be given to Sherman.

BAIL FORFEITED.

The bail of S. T. Lewis, indicted in common pleas court on the charge of forgery, was forfeited to-day. The amount is $500, and J. F. Murphy and O. D. Squire are sureties.

$200 A WORD.

John M. Butler Given Probably the Highest Fee Ever Paid for Legal Advice.

It is not often a piece of legal advice costs $200 a word, but yet this recently happened in this city. Not long ago Mr. Morris Butler, son of John M. Butler, who had just arrived home from an evening party at 2 o'clock in the morning, heard a carriage drive up to the house, and, a moment later, answered a ring at the door bell. A young man of handsome face and energetic manner blurted out, without ceremony:

"What states can cousins legally marry in?"

"I don't know," said Mr. Butler, as soon as he could recover from the effects of his visitor's bluntness, "but I will ask father."

He went upstairs, and after much knocking, aroused his father.

"Father," said he, "what states can cousins legally marry in?"

"Kansas," was the single word in response, between what sounded suspiciously like snores.

Mr. Butler returned down stairs.

"Well, what does he say?" asked the visitor.

"Kansas," replied young Mr. Butler, laconically.

"Thank you!" The door was closed and the young visitor was gone.

Nothing further was thought of the incident until yesterday's mail brought Mr. Butler a certified check for $200 for "legal advice" from his hitherto unknown client. This is probably the highest rate per word ever paid for legal advice. It divides into $100 per syllable and $33.33 per letter.—Indianapolis News.

Offices in the Bee building are now complete. They contain all improvements and are the finest in the city.

A CENTENARIAN DOLL.

It Has Been a Plaything of Four Generations and More.

In the old parsonage at Bedford, Mass., is a remarkable doll of carved wood which has been the pet of four successive generations. At the beginning of the revolution a Boston merchant went out to Andover to escape the troubles in the city and formed a close partnership with the Rev. Jonathan French, a noted minister. As soon as trade was resumed—in 1784—he imported two dolls of a style and finish then thought wonderful, even in London; one he gave to his own daughter and the other to the daughter of Mr. French. The first soon went to destruction, but the second was kept in fine order by Abigail French, who in time became the wife of Rev. Samuel Stearns, of Bedford, and handed it over to her own daughter.

Patty French, as the doll was named, became an object of household regard, and the highest respect for her was exacted even from the rudest boys that in succession came into the family. Four generations have followed and Patty is still a household pet. The children of the parsonage, great-grandchildren of Abigail French, now have dolls that can sing (squeal?), cry and close their eyes, but they would part with all of them rather than with the cracked, battered and spotted-faced Patty.—Brooklyn Citizen.

Election of Officers for the Ensuing Year.

Pictures and Brief Sketches of the Chief Officers—The Ticket as Elected.

President—Frank I. King.

First Vice President—Ezra L. Southworth.

Second Vice President—Fred O. Paddock.

Secretary—Denison B. Smith.

Treasurer—William T. Carrington.

Directors—J. Frank Zahm, Charles L. Reynolds, Frank W. Annin, James Blass, William M. Bellman, Milton Churchill, Thomas A. Taylor, Julius J. Coon, Henry W. Devore, William E. Cratz.

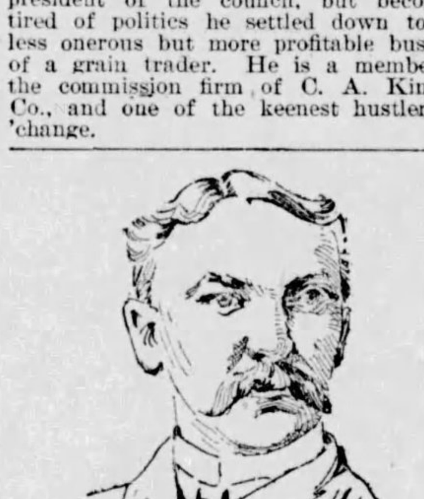
Committee on Arbitration—Charles A. King, Fred J. Reynolds, Frederick C. Chapin, James Hodge, Charles Stager, Leroy S. Churchill, Frank H. Tanner.

Committee on Appeals—Frank N. Quale, George A. White, E. Delano Draper, Vincent Hamilton, William A. Rundell, Charles L. Cutter, Henry Cratz, Charles W. Coe, Steven W. Flower, Reuben B. Mitchell, Alonzo H. Hathaway.

The above is the ticket placed in nomination by the controlling interests of the Toledo Produce Exchange and elected this afternoon.

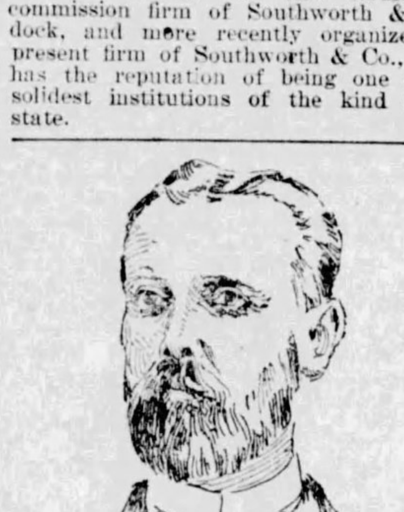
Frank I. King.

Frank I. King, the youngest member of the Exchange ever elected to the important position of president, was born in Patterson, N. J., 31 years ago. He came to Toledo when a few months old, and has been prominently identified with the city's commercial and political interests the past ten years. Elected councilman from the Third ward, he was elected president of the council, but becoming tired of politics he settled down to the less onerous but more profitable business of a grain trader. He is a member of the commission firm of C. A. King & Co., and one of the keenest hustlers on 'change.



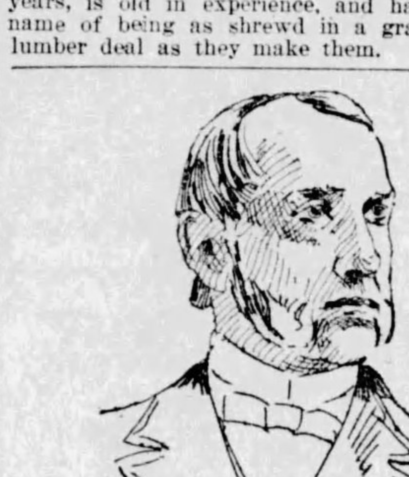
E. L. Southworth.

E. L. Southworth, of the firm of Southworth & Co., is 43 years of age, and as First Vice-President, is a counterpart in his proclivities as a hustler of President King. He was for years cashier with C. A. King & Co. and left that firm in 1882 to enter the establishment of R. Hallaran & Co. He then formed the commission firm of Southworth & Paddock, and more recently organized the present firm of Southworth & Co., which has the reputation of being one of the solidest institutions of the kind in the state.



F. O. Paddock.

The Second Vice-President, is only 28 years of age. Two years ago the firm of Paddock, Hodge & Co. was organized, and the company of pushing young men are not only heavy grain buyers, but are also interested in the lumber business in Illinois. Mr. Paddock, though young in years, is old in experience, and has the name of being as shrewd in a grain or lumber deal as they make them.



D. B. Smith.

Denison B. Smith, who for some fifteen years has acted as secretary of the Toledo Produce exchange, is re-elected to that office. That he is the right man in the right place his long term of office attests. Mr. Smith was born at Stonington, Conn., in 1817. He set foot in the Maumee valley during 1836, locating at Perrysburg. Two years later he went into business at Miami, forwarding and furnishing supplies. In 1841 he formed a co-partnership with Geo. S. Hazard, now of Buffalo, and enlarged the business. Realizing the bright prospects of the Future Great he removed to Toledo in 1844 at the time of the opening of the Wabash canal. He was interested in line of canal boats, transporting grain, etc., and in 1849, when the first local board of trade was organized, he was chosen president. For nearly half a century Mr. Smith has been identified with the commerce and progress of Toledo, and his days of usefulness stretch out long before him.

Union Railroad E. & T. Co.

The annual election of the Union Railroad Elevator & Transportation company was held this afternoon. The directory is the same as last year, and the officers will be the same, save that Ernest Defenbauch takes the place of M. W. Platt as secretary. Mr. A. L. Backus is president.

Thompson & Chute Soap Co.

The annual meeting of the Thompson & Chute Soap company was held Saturday evening and the directors elected were G. M. Chute, Charles S. Ashley, N. M. Haviland, J. C. Kurtz, and J. C. Losee. The directors will elect officers at a meeting to be held to-morrow evening.

The Smith Bridge company postponed their election.

The Swan Creek railroad and Toledo Rolling Stock company elected the same officials as last year.

Do not fail to see what we are offering in Dress Goods. Many telling bargains.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. C. A. Flickinger is visiting in Defiance.

G. G. Hadley is laid up with an attack of the grippe.

Miss Anna Rohrs, of Napoleon, is the guest of her sister in Toledo.

Miss Cynthia S. Hartman, of Napoleon, is the guest of friends in Toledo

T. L. Weaver and wife are spending a few days with the former's parents at Fostoria.

Doctress Mary Priest and daughter Libbie have returned after an extended visit with relatives at Van Wert.

The second social party of the Halcyon club for this season will be held at G. A. R. hall next Thursday evening.

Misses Cary and Haag, of Napoleon, were the guests of Miss Blackman New Year's. Miss Cary will remain several weeks.

Miss Edith Belford entertained a small company of friends very delightfully at her home on West Woodruff avenue Saturday evening.

Miss Myrtle Hall has resigned her position as teacher in the Franklin school and to-morrow will leave for college at Oberlin.

Miss Mary Pomeroy, of Berea, who has been the guest of the Misses Tillinghast of Eleventh street, leaves for home to-day, after a very pleasant visit.

Saturday evening Miss Elizabeth Paddock of west Woodruff ave., entertained a pleasant party of friends to introduce her guest Miss Mabel Breckenridge of Hamilton, Ont. It was a most enjoyable occasion.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Price Current for Produce and Other Articles

The Financial Situation.

Money on call representing bankers' balances has loaned this week at 5 and at 2 per cent., averaging 2 1-2 per cent., at which and at 3 per cent. renewals have been made; banks and trust companies quote 3 as a minimum while some obtain 4 per cent. Time contracts have been less active this week because of the large offerings of money and a lighter demand. Many of the commission houses, it is said have sold stocks for their customers and therefore require little money, which others are at present supplying themselves in the call loan branch of the market, having decided to wait until 1892 before making contracts, as then they expect to be able to engage funds at low rates, which will carry them over into the middle of the year. Offerings are liberal from almost every quarter and lenders are less exacting as regards the character of the collateral, stipulating only that it shall be good. * * * Rarely has money been so plentiful at the close of the year as it has been this week. The preparations for the disbursement of interest and dividends appear to have made no impression whatever upon the supply, until yesterday, when for a brief time there was a little quicker movement. The offerings have been more than could find employment, both on call and on time. If there is any section in the west or south just now not fully supplied with currency, it can no longer be because there is not enough to go around.—N. Y. Financial Chronicle.

Trafton's N. Y. "Produce Ex. Reporter."

Flour—Of course there is not much to be said about the market at a time like the present. That trade has been devoid of life goes without saying, being the usual thing during the transition from the old to the new year. Of course dullness under these conditions has created no surprise, being generally expected. Still it must be acknowledged that trade has scarcely been so sluggish as customary at this season, buyers for both domestic and foreign account manifesting a fair degree of interest, but unfortunately at limits too much below holders' views to admit of noteworthy transactions, while values in the main have not declined to any appreciable extent. The undertone has certainly been weaker in sympathy with the break in wheat, which was ascribed largely to the liberal movement from the northwest, and the unexpectedly large addition to the visible supply.

The Markets.

London wheat and corn markets at opening steadily held for spot, to arrive rather easier. Country markets very slow. Weather frosty. Liverpool wheat easier and lower. Corn dearer.

The receipts of wheat at seven principal western points to-day are 715,099 bu., compared with 340,695 bu. on the same day last year.

Shipments of wheat from India last week equaled 840,000 bu. Previous week 320,000 bu. From April 1, the commencement of the crop year, to January 2, 46,258,000 bu., compared with 21,-590,000 bu. in the corresponding period in 1891.

The New York Financial Chronicle reports gross earnings of 85 roads for third week in December increased 7.22 per cent.

The Wheat Situation.

The present condition of the wheat markets of the world by no means reflects the expectation of dealers everywhere at about the time of the last harvests. Then the report of the Vienna congress, and the subsequent verification of very much of the world's deficiency in production, as stated, created a wide-spread impression that prices would greatly advance and continue abnormally high during the year.

There is little room for doubt but that these anticipations would have been realized had not American dealers, confident of our coming resources, sold to the importing markets fifty millions of wheat. These sales allayed all solicitation for the time, and prices have never gained the position that was expected in consequence of them. To-day the situation is an extraordinary one. Our greatest competitor is out of the markets and the old world importers are full of wheat and prices declining every day. To our mind it teaches the lesson that a short crop here or there cannot be relied upon to produce the effects that were realized in the olden times.

The receipts of wheat to-day at seven principal western points are 374,404 bu in excess of the corresponding Monday in 1891. The export clearances Saturday at four Atlantic ports were: Wheat, 243,-168 bu of flour to an aggregate of 250,-000 bu. The exports of corn were 336,-343 bu and of oats 95,722 bu.

English markets as reported herein are dull and easier for wheat and firmer for corn.

There is no check perceptible to the downward tendency in the grain markets. The markets abroad are affected by the weakness prevailing here, and one side is a blind guide to the other. Wheat, corn and oats are all cheaper with—so far as wheat is concerned—a firmer feeling at the close.

The English and continental markets closed weak and slightly lower.

In New York January wheat closed 5-8c and May 3-4c lower. January corn 1-2c and May 3-8c lower. January oats 2 1-4c lower.

In Chicago January wheat closed 18c and May 3-8c lower. January corn 1c and May unchanged. January oats 1 7-8c lower.

In Toledo—There has been a fair amount of trading in wheat futures, on weaker and declining prices. The declinings were as usual for May which commenced at 99 3-4 declined to 1-4, and closed at 1-2, a loss of 1-2. One sale for February was made at 93 1-2.

Cash wheat was a little more inquired for at a little greater decline than in May. No. 2 soft sold at 94 1-4 to 94 and at close 94 1-4 was the price, a loss of 3-4. No. 3 soft at 91 1-4 to 91. No. 1 white at 93 1-2.

Corn No. 2 at 41, No. 3 at 39 1-2, No. 4 37. Oats No. 3 white at 33.

Rye—No. 2 at 88 1-2c. Dressed hogs at $4 50.

Clover seed was not active but about steady. March sold at $5 80; No. 2 at $5 45 to $5 50.

The visible supply of wheat increased last week 1,049,000 bu. Corn 1,217,000 bu. Oats 1,479,000 bu. In the corresponding week in 1891 wheat increased $3,000 b. Corn 138,000 bu. Oats 100,-100 bu.

Seed Market.

The receipts of this commodity at Toledo last week were 1,887 bags, shipments 3,850 bags. In the corresponding week in 1891 the receipts were 1,011 bags, shipments 1,605 bags. Since September 1 to January 2 receipts have been 47,597 bags and the shipments 29,959 bags, compared with the receipts 44,495 bags and shipments 35,462 bags in the corresponding period in 1890-91.

The exports from New York for the week ending December 30 were 2,371 bags, and since September 1 to same date 38,221 bags, compared with 32,251 bags in the corresponding period in 1890.

Baltimore Seeds.—The market is quiet and firm at quotations. Exporters are out of the market, and report foreign inquiry at a standstill at the moment. Exports of seed for the week ending December 31, 1891: Clover, 7,248 bu; timothy, 3,631 bu; flax, 1,202 bu. Receipts to-day, 481 bu clover.

Markets by Telegraph.

London, Jan. 4.—1 p. m.—Wheat cargoes off coast at opening, steadily held; maize nothing offering. Wheat and maize cargoes on passage and for shipment, rather easier.

Mark Lane.—Wheat at opening steadier; maize quiet. English country markets very slow and occasionally cheaper. Weather frosty.

Liverpool, Jan. 4.—1 p. m.—Wheat market easy, demand poor, holders offer freely. American mixed corn firm, demand fair, 5s 5 1-2d. Spring wheat (U. S. seaboard inspection) 8s 2d@8s 2 1-2d. No. 2 red winter wheat (New York standard) 8s 2d@8s 2 1-2d. No. 1 Cala. wheat 8s 7d@8s 7 1-2d. Wheat off coast demand poor; corn fair.

New York, Jan. 4.—Money 3@4 per cent. Exchange steady; posted rates, 483@485 1-2; actual rates, 481 3-4@482 for 60 days and 484 1-4@484 1-2 for demand.

Governments steady; currency 6s, 109 bid; 4s coupon, 116 3-4 bid; extended 2s, registered, 100 3-4 bid.

This morning's trading on the stock exchange was the largest in months and was more equally distributed throughout the list than for a long time past. At the opening the tone was irregular and feverish. Throughout the first hour prices were more or less unsettled. The first figures were generally 1-8 to 5-8 per cent higher, but active selling soon set in, and the market became feverish. In the early trading New York and New England was the most conspicuous, advancing 2 per cent. before the upward movement was checked. Wheeling & Lake Erie preferred was also very prominent, advancing 2 5-8 per cent. Whisky trusts advanced 1 per cent. On the other hand Chicago Gas, Omaha and Oregon Short Line were weak and recorded sharp declines. At 11 o'clock values were irregularly changed.

In the second hour C., C., C. & St. L. was the feature, being very active, but its price changed but slightly. The whole market was firm in the second hour, and at noon about the top figures were made. The advances ranged from 1-8 to 2 per cent. At this writing the market is less active and steady. The sales for the morning amounted to 341,-500 shares.

New York, Jan. 4.—Flour moderately active, with prices steady; Minn. extra $3.50@5.50, city mill extra $5.00@5.25 for West Indies, fine $2.85@3.50, superfine $2.95@3.75. Wheat opened weak at 1-8c decline and continued weak during the morning and further declined; prices at midday were down 7-8c; No. 2 red winter cash $1.86@1.06 1-4, Jan. $1.04 1-4, Feb. $1.05 3-8, March $1.06 3-8, April $1.06 7-8. Corn prices were irregular. At the opening a decline of 3-8c was noted, but a recovery of 1-8c took place later; No. 2 mixed cash 43 1-4, Jan. 51 3-4c, March 51 3-8c, May 50 3-8c. Rye dull and heavy; quoted 98c@$1.01 for the whole range. Barley dull, but strong; No. 2 Milwaukee 72@74.

Molasses quiet; New Orleans new, 32@38c. Sugar, refined steady; cutloaf and crushed 5 1-8c; powdered, 4 5-16c; granulated, 4 1-8@4 1-4c. Coffee quiet; fair Rio cargoes, 16 1-4c. Rice nominal. Pork moderately active and steady; new mess, $10.00. Lard steady; January, $6.40; February, $6.50; March, $6.60. Butter quiet; western extras creamery, 29c. Cheese fairly active and firm. Eggs dull and weak; western fresh, 26c. Turpentine quiet but steady; 34 1-2@35 1-4c. Rosin dull; strained to good, $1.35@1.40. Tallow dull; prime city, 4 13-16. Petroleum nominal. Freights dull and unchanged. Oats dull but steady; No. 2 mixed cash, 39c.

Detroit, Jan. 4.—Close: Wheat—No. 2 red cash 99 3-4; May 99 bid; No. 1 white cash 93. Corn—No. 2 cash 42 1-2 bid. Oats—No. cash 33 1-2.

Even Griffin's nominating speech couldn't save Foraker's candidate for speaker.

Heller begins to understand that he made a political blunder by crawling into Griffin's pocket.

Of the three representatives from Lucas county Mr. Flickinger is the one shrewd member. He voted for the winning candidate for speaker, and will be the one influential representative from Toledo.

Since the year 1857 there have not been so many business failures as in the year 1891. In 1890 the number reached was 10,907; in '91, 12,273, which emphasizes the fact that averaged wealth and prosperity in the year's count does not mean the well-being of all classes, or of individuals generally.

Complaint is abroad that it doesn't "pay," financially, to be a congressman, and lists of names are made out that stand for those who have lost money in the game. Strange how men who are struggling for the mighty dollar will drop their tools of trade and all but break their necks to get there.

More than 200 men were discharged from government employ last week at Sandy Hook and thereabouts where work is needed, and with back pay for labor due them, because the money was not forthcoming from Washington. A half-dozen demands have been made and no response has been given. President Harrison demanded, why is this thus? and Secretary Foster absolutely refused to open the door and let him peep into the treasury vault. The effects of the recklessness of the Billion-dollar congress are being felt every day in spite of the clever manipulation of government officers to hide the truth from the people.

The election of Hon. L. C. Laylin as speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives is creditable to the gentleman and an honor to northwestern Ohio. It was not at all creditable to the partisanship of the members of his party that only two of them from this section, Mr. Flickinger, of Lucas, and Mr. Williams, of Williams, voted for him in the caucus. So viciously ugly were the others toward John Sherman that they refused to vote for Laylin because he is a friend of the Senator. However, Mr. Laylin is an able member and a courteous gentleman and he will prove an accomplished speaker.

The tardy confession that comes from sundry republican newspapers in Ohio that they have been deceiving and misleading their readers all these years concerning the character of the man who represented them in the United States senate, will not tend to strengthen confidence in the sincerity of these would-be leaders of public opinion. By republican showing both Sherman and Foraker are unfit to be honored with the position to which they aspire, and Sherman is a more corrupt and designing politician than even the democrats ever accused him of being. Either these things are solemnly true or the organs have been telling falsehoods; there is no other possible conclusion.

The partisan journals of the Dominion meet the same difficulty as newspapers this side the line: to apologize to foreigners for statements that are made solely for political effect at home. The Canadian conservatives, in pleading against trade treaties with this country, declare that Canada cannot compete with the United States in various products, if terms are made free and unrestricted, and in the next line hasten to affirm that they can meet and distance the "Yankees" any time and under any circumstances. Our high tax organs experience a like difficulty in keeping the foreigner in good humor for dicker while they breathe venom and hatred toward him and his "paupers" to prejudice the voter within our own borders.

If there is any sacredness in promises, made with apparent fidelity, then the United States and Chile are bound to arbitrate their trouble. If, as foreshadowed, Senor Romero, minister from Mexico to this country, is to be chosen arbitrator, the people will approve the selection. In view of the only honorable way out of the difficulty, there is but one explanation of all the jingoism that has been indulged in, and that is purely political. Great Britain recalled her minister from this country for less provocation than Minister Egan has given the Chileans, and at the time when the passions of the people were excited and party spirit ran to high water mark. According to his own account, he "harbored refugees," and according to all accounts he has not observed neutrality as he was bound by oath to do. His recall would have facilitated the settlement of difficulties. He has rendered himself obnoxious to the Chilean government, which the United States has recognized, and his opportunities for good offices are at an end.

Mr. James Bryce, author of the "American Commonwealth," is in trouble resulting from "joint authorship." In order to secure an American copyright for his great work he employed Prof. Goodnow, of Columbia college, to write a chapter for the book. "The Tweed Ring" was the subject selected, on which Prof. Goodnow wrote in very forceful and direct English. A mere child at the time of which he wrote, he depended largely on records of that day for his material. Naturally these records had a good deal to say of Mr. A Oakey Hall, and naturally Prof. Goodnow's chapter reflects on the character of Mr. Hall in a way that gentleman, now an esteemed British subject and rich resident of London, does not like. Consequently he has brought suit for libel against Mr. Bryce, which the latter must defend at great cost, and which it is not at all certain will not go against the author, for British juries are kittle cattle in libel suits. The position is a very vexatious one for Mr. Bryce, and public sympathy will be with him, on this side the water, at least.

The Ohio State Journal, intensely partisan, opens the book of state's history and rebukes the politicians of its party who cry "boodle" whenever they are defeated, and at the same time clears the coat skirts of Senator Sherman of conspiracy with the dreadful democrats. Here is the listed argument.

In 1889, when Brice was elected senator, the ballot-box business caused republican defeat.

In 1883, when the Payne legislature was elected, it was due to the temperance legislation that the republicans had passed and no one ever disputed this fact.

In 1877 the Pendleton legislature came into power with Governor Bishop, and it was due to the labor trouble existing at that time and Judge West's unfortunate speech at Cleveland and the disaffection over the southern policy of President Hayes.

In 1873 William Allen was elected governor and a legislature came into power with him that re-elected Thurman. This was due to the inflation craze existing at that time, and John Sherman was the principal advocate then as always for honest money.

In 1867 the agitation over negro suffrage caused the Ohio legislature to be democratic and Thurman was elected for the first time.

These are the only democratic legislatures that have been elected in Ohio since John Sherman entered public life. Every schoolboy who is familiar with the history of his state knows that the causes given above are true, and that John Sherman did everything in his power to prevent the unfortunate results.

And so, at last we have it from this accepted republican authority—the cry of "boodle" and "barrel" was all for political effect, while the true causes, for some reason, were denied by the same partisans who are now at the confessional. When rogues fall out, then just men get their dues.

A TOLEDO QUESTION.

More than the majority of Ohio cities, Toledo has a direct interest in the legislation of the present congress. Improvements in our harbor, so well begun, must be continued if Toledo's marine interests would keep pace with the wonderful growth of the commerce of the great inland seas.

Fortunately we have a congressman who is alert in behalf of Toledo's harbor improvements.

Fortunately we have one United States senator who received loyal support from Toledoans in his senatorial campaign, and whose influence will be with us.

Now, to the shame of Toledo be it said that the other senator—the one who of all Ohioans can command the most influence for us in the present senate—is attacked, abused, and accused of crime by Toledoans. Never before was a public man so viciously attacked as is John Sherman in Toledo. Not by all Toledoans; not by the better element even, of his own party; not by business men, and not by democrats. But by the ward politicians under respectable leadership, and bugled by newspaper noise-makers, he is warned away from Toledo and invited to keep away from northwestern Ohio. The haters of Sherman have captured two Toledo legislative votes against him.

When the astounding senatorial campaign of crimination is ended, and politics gives way to business, perhaps these fomentors of hate and fury will see wherein they have injured Toledo. Very likely John Sherman will rise above his wrath and unite with Senator Brice and Representative Haynes in urging and obtaining liberal appropriations for Toledo's harbor, but nobody would blame him if he should become passively instead of actively a champion of our interests.

How differently other lake localities have acted in this senatorial struggle. Cleveland considers the business side of the question and its delegation is practically solid for Sherman. The Sandusky Register is wisely favorable to Sherman. Other places along the lake have not joined the unmerciful crusade against Sherman. Toledo alone has wallowed in the mire of dirty politics and Toledo must accept the situation as it shall be found.

THE NEW DOCTRINE OF FLOP.

A tremendous onslaught is being made upon Hon. C. A. Flickinger by the Foraker wing of Toledo republicans. In so many words he has not been accused of selling out for money, but the insinuating charges border so closely upon open accusation that it is not easy to draw the line of distinction. He is accused of flopping from Foraker to Sherman. In some communities a charge of this character would be considered an unpardonable political offense, but in republican circles in Toledo it is as honorable to about-face as to remain steadfast. Assuming the role of oracle, the Blade, during the present senatorial campaign, editorially promulgated this doctrine of absolution:

"Expressions favorable to other senatorial aspirants made under moral duress at nominating conventions are not to be counted as binding pledges."

Perhaps the organ of loose political morals had in mind Representative Heller's contemplated renunciation of a Sherman pledge when it printed the remarkable sentence. Whatever it meant the absolution is equally as applicable to Flickinger as Heller, and neither the Blade, Romeis nor the other rantankerous Foraker advocates have any ethical right, since the establishment of the new doctrine, to make discriminating distinction between these two representatives. Flickinger has acted upon the Blade's suggestion and has flopped. And all the more credit to his political shrewdness that he has flopped from the losing to the winning side.

Disgraceful, But True.

Judge Woods saved the republican party from a fearful exposure that would have followed Dudley's trial and conviction. Under instructions from Washington the United States district attorney vacated a warrant that had been sworn out before a court commissioner for Dudley's arrest. All the rascals went free of the law. The administration threw its whole power into the breach to save Dudley. It did save him through the office of Judge Woods. This disgraced judge now gets his reward, and Brother Harrison in his message sings psalms about honest elections.—Pittsburg Post.

Uncle Dana Speaks.

The government has done its full duty to the fair. Chicago, in its turn, should be made to keep the engagements into which it entered with the government. If it cannot raise the money it should give up the enterprise. It will make no effort to raise any more money as long as there is any prospect of begging it. There is no such prospect, unless congress has lost its memory and its good sense.—New York Sun.

As the Empire Sees It.

Chili illustrates in its treatment by the great republic what might be the civility and kindness accorded to Canada were she separated from Great Britain, as Messrs. Wiman and Laurier advocates. Our fisheries would of course be quite safe and secure.—Toronto Empire.

This is Soothing.

The reason given by the St. Louis Republic for recovering its good nature and spirits and discouraging a continued democratic war in the House is that "the people are not fools." This soothes the suspicion that the Republic has been going on the contrary principle.—Kansas City Star.

Such As the Bee Is.

The Toledo Bee has just occupied a magnificent new office, or Bee Hive, as it calls it. This is handsomely and spaciously built, and is fitted up with all the accessories necessary to the production of a first-class paper, such as the Bee is.—Indianapolis News.

Colonel Jones to Colonel Watterson.

Col. Watterson is still engaged in sweeping the political field with his hindsight. And it is well known that if there is one man whose hindsight reaches right up to the political horizon it is Col. Watterson's.—St. Louis Republic.

MENTIONED ON THE STREETS.

That Foster's winter has arrived.

That the courts opened up to-day for the winter term.

That the snow shovel "was in it" yesterday and to-day.

That Doc Smith does not back up his statement with an affidavit.

That Councilman Tanner would not be adverse to being gas trustee.

That Phil Hassenzahl was offered the gas trusteeship but declined.

That as a political prophet Representative Griffin is not worth a fig.

That the public library was closed Saturday on account of lack of gas.

That liverymen are happy over the fall of snow; their sleighs are having an airing.

That electric street cars were running in tandem to-day, and only semi-occasionally.

That people burning city gas visited their Northwestern neighbors yesterday to get warm.

That Billy Vena got out of the caucuses at Columbus what the Bee stated he would—nothing.

That Flickinger is proud of his stand for Sherman and don't propose to be driven from his ground.

That Bill Kirkby's indorsements for state railroad commissioner are as solid as any republican can get.

That it is a poor day when the contending republican forces do not put out one or more affidavits. Whose turn is it to-day?

That it is "horse an' horse" so far as numbers are concerned with the Sherman federal office holders and Foraker's ex-office holders.

That smoke was issuing from the chimneys in lower town yesterday with old-time regularity. It was not safe to say anything about "dead-ends."

That most of the politicians who went to Columbus for the preliminary skirmish are home again—some very sad, some bubbling over with joy.

That Flickinger has a laugh on his face reaching from ear to ear. Griffin will have to apply to Speaker Laylin through the admiral for any favors he desires.

That Mayor Emmick and Judge Sala gave Gov. McKinley some instructions last week. If the governor has the sense he is credited with the mission will prove fruitless.

That Griffin was mistaken in his statement that McGrew would be elected speaker sure. Will his other declaration that Foraker will be senator prove as misleading?

That Laylin is speaker, even if he only received two votes from northwestern Ohio. The speaker will not hurt himself assisting in fixing up congressional districts for his enemies.

That George Fields is in Columbus forcing his fight for penitentiary manager. George has been a faithful hewer of wood and drawer of water for the republicans for some years, and is entitled to some recognition. It is likely, however, that he will not prove a winner, much as his friends would desire his success.

AT THE OLD LADIES' HOME.

Death of Another Venerable Inmate—Many More Ill.

Appropriate funeral services were held at the Old Ladies' Home yesterday morning for the late Miss Irene Tracy, whose death at the home was recorded in Saturday's Bee. Rev. Dr. Fish officiated. The remains were taken to Lambertville for interment.

To-day the Bee has to record the death of another inmate of the home, Mrs. Rebecca Sanford having passed away at the advanced age of over 90 years.

There is a great deal of sickness at the home, no less than 16 of the inmates being confined to their beds or their rooms. Among those so seriously ill that little hope of recovery is entertained is Mrs. Louise Reno, the charming old French lady who has many warm friends in Toledo. Mrs. Reno is so very ill that her death is momentarily expected.

There seems to be no cause for this epidemic of illness, except a general breaking down of the dear old ladies. The long continued bad weather has afflicted them more than others, on account of their age.

THE JANUARY TERM

Of Common Pleas Court Opens—Assignment for Judges—Grand Jury.

The January term of common pleas court convened this morning.

During the term Judge Harmon will call the dockets and try civil cases in room No. 2.

Judge Lemmon will try criminal cases in room No. 1.

Judge Pugsley, after Monday, January 11, will hear civil cases in room 3.

Judge Lemmon is still confined to his home on account of illness, and Judge Harmon will try criminal cases until Judge Lemmon is able to attend court.

The following named persons were summoned as grand jurors. Jesse Sisson, foreman; Charles F. Steinmiller, Adam Wagner, Peter Lyons, J. R. Turner, A. W. Eschedor, Thomas McTigue, Adam Keller, jr., L. S. Geleerd, E. P. Wigton, James McVeary, George Whitemore, Daniel Carney, Huburtis Fish.

COUNCIL BUSINESS.

The General Street Railway Ordinance and Mayor Emmick's Veto.

The board of councilmen will meet this evening but the schedule of business is a short one as there have been no committee meetings for two weeks. The most important matters are the resolution to advertise for proposals for collecting garbage; the ordinance to fix the price of illuminating gas, and the general street railway ordinance which comes up for action on the mayor's veto. The board of aldermen passed this ordinance over the mayor's veto, and the indications are that the councilmen will do the same. A joint session will be held next Monday to act on the mayor's appointment of gas trustee.

GERMANY WILL BE HERE.

Making Preparations to Attend the World's Fair.

Berlin, Jan. 4.—The official Gazette of yesterday says: "Industrial, artistic, and above all, agricultural circles in Germany are beginning to display increased interest in the Chicago world's fair.

"Schleswig-Holstein, Oldenburg and East Prussia will send cattle and horses chiefly as specimens for breeding purposes, and negotiations have been opened for a special rate of insurance on these valuable animals.

"Agricultural machines for ploughing, sewing and reaping, and implements used in viniculture and horticulture will be forwarded to Chicago in order to complete the display of German agriculture at the world's fair."

BISHOP OF LICHFIELD.

London, Jan. 4.—The bishop of Lichfield is dying.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Herbert Spencer is described as a man at whom one would look a second time on the street. He is tall, and in his attire is careful.

Queen Victoria, having completed her 72d year, has exceeded in age all other English sovereigns except two—Georges II. and III.

Mrs. Jane Simpson, the wife of the famous Congressman Jeremiah, finds time to act as Washington correspondent of the Medicine Lodge Index.

Thomas Dunn English, representative from a New Jersey district in the present congress, gained note as the author of "Ben Bolt" in his younger days. He is 73 years old Nubar Pasha, now at Cannes with his suite, is the only christian holding the rank of field marshal of the Ottoman Empire. He worked his way up from a humble position in the Russian consulate at Smyrna to be prime minister of Egypt.

Of the three Indiana governors who have died in office two, Govs. Williams and Hovey, died in November—one on the 20th and the other on the 23d. Morton and Hendricks also died in November, 1st and 26th, respectively.

A sister of Christine Nilsson has been discovered at Milwaukee in very straitened circumstances. She is the wife of a Swedish teacher, and has a daughter of uncommon musical promise. Steps will be taken to give the latter a conservatory training.

Louise Michel is at present in London having crossed the channel chiefly to consult some books in the library of the British Museum. Here she may be seen daily working hard. Her face is large, heavily lined, worn and pale; suffering is there and signs of sacrifice; likewise the light of enthusiasm, which those who differ from her would describe as the indication of madness. With dress or outward appearance she has little concern; but her old, battered, black felt hat, and her shabby black gown are forgotten at sight of her remarkable countenance.

MORE GAS TERRITORY.

A Pointer for Toledo Trustees.

To the Editor—There is plenty of gas for the city of Toledo; all that is necessary to procure an abundance is for the trustees to get out in the gas field and do a little more hustling and post themselves as to where the gas is. Your correspondent can give them a pointer: The territory referred to lies west of Van Lue one and a half miles and thence north one and a half miles. Kelly Rupert, an Englishman, has three gas wells on the Knorr farm not more than a mile and a half from the city's main line. These have a rock pressure of 225 pounds and amount to 3,000,000 feet per day. Mr. Ware, just west, on the Brown farm, has one well with pressure 250 pounds and a daily production of 2,000,000 feet. Directly north of the Brown farm one mile, Kelly and Davis have a gas well in the center of a farm of 100 acres, 265 pounds pressure and capacity of three millions per day. And F. C. Kelly has a well on the Conrad Wylie farm, joining the Davis farm, good for 2,000,000 feet per day.

This territory lies on the boundary of Allen and Portage townships, and the gas wells already drilled prove beyond a doubt that the farms referred to are in a strip of good gas territory. It is better than the eastern field, which is drawn on by the Northwestern lines, for the number of towns and cities which it supplies, while no line is taking supply from this field. It is believed the city of Toledo could purchase this territory, already developed to the extent of six to eight millions per day, at reasonable figures.

Wood County, Jan. 2.

THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE

Opens in East Toledo This Morning—What Was and What Will be Done.

The Lucas County Farmers' Institute opened in East Toledo this morning and will continue to-morrow. Vice President W. W. Farnsworth spoke on the subject of farmers' institutes, and T. B. Terry, of Hudson, took up the subject of money in clover. Discussion was opened by Mr. Rackienstraw. This afternoon addresses were made by Mrs. Alcy M. Hyde and W. H. Gilbert. Both were very interesting. This evening J. L. Pray will speak of the social life of a farmers' family, and T. B. Terry, of Hudson, will tell about the farmers' home. The evening session commences at 7 o'clock. The program for to-morrow will be as follows:

10 O'clock a. m.

Music.
Invocation—Rev. C. B. Holding.
Advantages and Disadvantages—L. C. Gibbs.
Discussion opened by Hon. J. C. Messer.
Leaks in the Butter Dairy—Wm. H. Gilbert, Richland.
Discussion opened by George W. Ramsey.

The institute at Waterville will open at Wittus hall Friday, February 26. An interesting program of exercises has been arranged.

DECLARED BANKRUPT.

The Continental Trust and Finance Company Insolvent.

New York Jan. 4.—A special to the Times from Philadelphia says: Three of the officers of the Continental Trust and Finance company, which was declared insolvent by superintendent of banking Krumbhaar Saturday, could not be found yesterday and it is a suggestive coincidence that they are the only members of the board of officers who know anything about the company's affairs.

None of them were at their homes during the day, and a diligent search throughout the city failed to discover them.

They are Walter Brown, the president; Pittman Bright the treasurer and T. D. McGlathery, the solicitor of the bankrupt concern.

GARZA SURROUNDED.

Encouraging Reports From the Mexican Border Troubles.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 4.—A dispatch from Laredo received this morning says: United States soldiers and Mexican rangers are reported to have Garza surrounded in the extreme northwestern part of Zapata county.

If this is the case Garza is hemmed in on all sides and it will be impossible for him to turn in any direction.

IN TREZZA'S BEHALF.

The Italian Government Will Be Heard Before He Is Electrocuted.

Washington, Jan. 4.—Secretary Blaine has received a telegram from Gov. Flower containing the information that the request of Niccolo Trezza, the Italian under sentence of death by electricity in New York would be granted, and that nothing would be done in the matter until further advices from the state department.

The telegram was in response to one sent by Mr. Blaine asking for a reprieve pending an investigation into the case. Trezza is said to be an Italian citizen.

CLOSE, OF BERLIN HEIGHTS,

For President of the Northern National Bank.

It looks as if the Northern National bank would, after all, be obliged to go out of the city for a president

Mr. Cummings' successor will probably be Mr. Close, of the coal and grain firm of Close, Peak & Hawkins, Berlin Heights, O. Mr. Close is a son-in-law of T. B. Hine, of this city, and is interested in vessel and other property in Toledo. He is also interested in banking at Berlin Heights, and is said to be one of the shrewdest financiers in the country.

ANOTHER CURED LUNATIC.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 4.—A special from Greenville, this state, brings the news of the terrible deed of an insane man there. James Taylor, one of the best citizens of the town, became suddenly insane and attacked his wife with a razor, cutting a gash from the left ear almost to the right shoulder blade, it being about seven inches long and deep enough to hold a folded towel. He was only prevented from killing her by the intervention of neighbors. There is but little chance for her recovery. Taylor was formerly an inmate of an insane asylum, but was discharged as cured three months after his incarceration.

BLAZE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—A fire in the restaurant of the Waverly hotel at 2 a. m. caused the death of John Meredith, aged 65, from suffocation, and Paul Wood, aged 17, who was crushed in the elevator during the wild rush of guests to escape, and the injury of several persons by falls or smoke. The money loss is $1,200.

OUR NAVY.

Washington, Jan. 4.—The navy department has received dispatches announcing the arrival of the Yantic at Montevideo, the Lancaster at Hong Kong, and the Menongahela at Barbadoes.

BIG FLOUR MILL.

Milwaukee, Jan. 4.—The Daisy Roller Mills company, of this city, Saturday signed contracts with the Superior Consolidated Land company, of Superior, Wis., wherein the former agrees to erect a flouring mill at Superior, the capacity of which, when completed, will be between 4,000 and 5,000 barrels per day.

ROBBED THE COUNTY.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 4.—Information has reached this city that the vault of the county clerk's office at Arcadia was blown open late Saturday afternoon by a burglar. The combination was shattered with dynamite and about $600 stolen. It is not known yet if any records were taken or injured.

SALA AND TECHNICALITIES

Will Not Be Given Place in the Circuit Court.

The Little Judge and His Side Partner Will Learn Some Law if They Remain in Office Long Enough.

The little police judge and his technicalities have again been sat upon by a reviewing court.

In the case of the state against Henzler, charged with violating the Sunday closing saloon law, which was tried in police court several months ago, it became necessary when the case came to trial to fill vacancies on the jury. Judge Sala, loth to miss an opportunity to exercise his authority, issued a special venire to fill the panel. The defense objected, and the same was promptly overruled by the court. The case was tried and the defendant convicted. The cause was appealed to the common pleas court on error. When it was tried, consel for defense argued that the law required the chief of police to fill the panel in such emergencies, and that Judge Sala had exceeded his authority when he issued a special venire.

Judge Harmon reversed the decision of the lower court on this appeal. Prosecutor Barber carried the case to the circuit court. This morning when that court convened, the judges intimated to Mr. Barber that that tribunal had no jurisdiction in criminal cases that had been lost by the state in the common pleas or police courts, and that such cases would have to be appealed to the supreme court direct.

BAND OF BOLD OUTLAWS.

They Apply the Torch to Valuable Property.

The Mayor of Pine Bluff Heads a Posse and Captures Part of the Gang.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Jan. 4.—An organized gang of outlaws burned the cotton gin of J. E. Bryan and the railroad depot at Linwood, south of this place, Saturday night, and committed other lawless deeds. The citizens of the place are wild with terror.

For some time the community has been infested with a band of negro desperadoes led by one or two white men. They terrorized all peaceful white citizens.

Against Dr. Bryan especially have they been hostile. On New Year's night his storehouse and wareroom were destroyed by fire. The object in burning the depot was that its location did not suit the outlaws and after the railroad company refused to heed a petition asking its removal they destroyed it.

A few weeks since 23 bales of cotton disappeared from a warehouse in Linwood, and soon afterward the gang displayed rolls of greenbacks and received a consignment of Winchesters.

Saturday night after the fire in the gin and depot there was a firing of weapons and windows and doors were riddled, the object being to keep everybody indoors.

A number of horses and colts were killed and other dastardly acts committed. King White, mayor of this place, organized a posse and started for Linwood about noon yesterday.

They returned last evening, having in charge six negroes and a white man, who are now in jail. The white man is the leader of the outlaws.

The desperadoes visited a man named Connor, a clerk in a store, Saturday night, and made him sell them a lot of cartridges. Connor claims he was so drunk that he cannot remember who they were, but the officials are holding him. Another party left here last night on a special train for Linwood to attempt the capture of the remainder of the gang, who are supposed to number 50 in all.

THE N. W. O. M. R. A.

The offices of the Northwestern Ohio Masonic Relief association in the Masonic temple are being repainted and papered and generally improved. The annual meeting of the association will be held January 15. It is not likely that there will be any change in the officers. During the past year $25,000 was paid out in death benefits.

Why Preferable to Cod Liver Oil?

TASTELESS ODORLESS — A FOOD A REMEDY — TRADE-MARK

Because it is both food and medicine; fish and other animal oils are solely foods. Angier's Petroleum Emulsion is a food, tonic, and alterative, and the greatest appetite, flesh, and strength producer known. It will relieve and cure the cough of Bronchitis and Consumption, is not unpleasant to take, almost as tasteless as water, acceptable to the weakest stomach, and does not nauseate or distress the patient as Cod Liver Oil is sure to do. It is doing more to save life than any other remedy in Wasting Diseases, Nervous Prostration, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, the after effects of La Grippe, Pneumonia, etc., and in Throat and Lung Diseases generally.

United States of America, Northern District of Ohio.

The Central Trust Company of New York Complainant, v. The Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw Railroad Company and other Defendants. Consolidated Causes. In the Circuit courts of the United States for the Northern District of Ohio, Western division, and for the Southern district of Ohio, Western division, and for the Eastern district of Michigan, and for the Western district of Michigan, Southern division. In equity.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern district of Ohio, Western division, entered in the above entitled cause on June 5, 1891, and of a decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern district of Ohio, Western division, entered in the above entitled cause on July 1, 1891, and of a decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern district of Michigan, entered in the above entitled cause on June 29, 1891, and of a decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Western district of Michigan, Southern division, entered in the above entitled cause on June 30, 1891, and of an order of said circuit court of the United States for the Northern District of Ohio dated December 23rd, 1891, and of orders of said other circuit courts adopting the same, we, Benjamin F. Wade and Hiram F. Carleton, the Special Masters designated, by said decrees, will sell without appraisement, at public auction, to the highest bidder or bidders, in the United States court room, in the City of Toledo, County of Lucas, and State of Ohio, at three o'clock, p. m. on the 8th day of January, 1892, the property covered by and embraced in the consolidated mortgage of the Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw Railroad Company, dated December 1, 1886. Excluding the Central Division, (being the property described in the first mortgage of the Cincinnati, Van Wert & Michigan Railroad Company, dated April 14, 1881), together with the proportion of equipment, material and supplies appertaining to the same which, upon the reference ordered in said decrees, shall be decreed by the court to properly belong to the same, and to be covered by said Consolidated Mortgage. Said property (excluding the Central Division) will be sold as an entirety, without appraisement or redemption. No bid will be accepted therefor from any bidder for a sum less than $450,000, nor from any bidder who shall not, if requested by the Special Masters, place in their hands, or deposit with them, as a pledge that he will make good his bid, if accepted by the court, the sum of $25,000 in cash or Consolidated Mortgage Bonds to the amount of $250,000 of principal.

Of the price for which said property shall be sold, there shall be paid in cash, at the time of the sale, a sum equal to the amount of cash deposit hereinbefore required, and also, at the same time, and from time to time thereafter, such further portions of said purchase price as the court may direct; and the court reserves the right to reject any bid, and to take and to sell said premises and property, upon failure of any purchaser for twenty days to comply with any order of the court requiring payment. The balance of the purchase price not required to be paid in cash may either be paid in cash, or the purchaser may satisfy and make good said balance of his bid, in whole or in part, by paying over the outstanding Consolidated Mortgage Bonds, and overdue coupons, or either, at such price or value as shall be equivalent to the amount that the holders thereof would be entitled to receive thereon in case the entire purchase price were paid in cash. If any bid shall be accepted by the court, and the person making the same shall fail to comply with all the conditions of sale and all orders of the court with respect thereto, the sum deposited by the bidder shall be forfeited, and shall be applied as the court may direct.

Reference is hereby made to the said decrees for a more specific description of the mortgaged property therein ordered to be sold, and for further particulars of the terms and conditions of sale.

vs.
James McK. Irvine, et al, Defendant.
Common Pleas Court, Lucas County, Ohio.

James McK. Irvine, Frederick McK. Irvine and Helen McK. Irvine, residing in New York City, State of New York, and Robert M. McK. Irvine, residing in Monroe, Seville county, Utah Territory, will take notice that on the 20th day of November, A. D., 1891, George Schramm filed his petition in the common pleas court of Lucas county, Ohio, case No. 32470, against the above named parties and others, praying for the foreclosure of a mortgage made by Roberta McK. Irvine, on June 27, 1887, to William Watson, on the following real estate, to-wit: That part of the west half (1-2) of the northwest one quarter (1-4) of section twenty (20), town nine (9), south range seven (7) east, lying north of Monroe street, containing forty acres more or less, in Washington township, Lucas county, Ohio, given to secure a note for the part purchase money for said premises; which mortgage was, with the note secured thereby, duly sold, assigned and transferred by said William Watson to said George Schramm, plaintiff; and on which mortgage, and note secured thereby, a balance of $464.10 is due, with interest on the same at six per cent. per annum, payable annually, from June 1st, 1890.

Said parties are required to answer on or before the 16th day of January, 1892, or judgment may be taken against them.

CHEATING IN HORSE BLANKETS

Nearly every pattern of 5/A Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that 5/A Horse Blankets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the 5/A trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

MRS. GRAHAM'S
Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream

Is not a cosmetic in the sence in which the term is popularly used, but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, smooth, clear, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sunburn and freckles and blackheads will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and thus prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old, ought to use it, as it gives a more youthful appearance to any lady and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1.00. Ask your druggist for it.

YEA, I HAVE A GOODLY HERITAGE.

My vineyard that is mine I have to keep
Pruning for fruit the pleasant twigs and leaves.
Tend thou thy cornfield; one day thou shall reap
In joy thy ripened sheaves.

Or if thine be an orchard, graft and prop
Food-bearing trees, each watered in its place;
Or if a garden, let it yield for crop
Sweet herbs and herb of grace.

But if my lot be sand, where nothing grows!
Nay, who hath said it? Tune a thankful psalm;
For though thy desert bloom not as the rose,
It yet can rear thy palm.

The ministry on roads of intercommunication was notified of the proposal of that firm, and its favorable decision is expected. The cars are to be constructed with appliances to change from the broad gauge of the Russian lines to the narrow gauge of the German roads without loss of time.

Says a Kansas man: "The fact that many people in prohibition states are using antipyrine as a substitute for alcohol shows how hard it is to make people sober by act of legislature. Kansas druggists sell an immense quantity of quinine, as well as bottles of bitters and tonics by the thousand, and prohibition seems only to succeed in compelling people to change their favorite drink. It is difficult to imagine any one eating quinine or drinking it in solution for enjoyment or from taste, but the habit is a very common one in almost every large city, and now antipyrine is being taken to in the same way. No one can take large doses of quinine with impunity very often, and any one who indulges in the antipyrine habit is laying up for himself a stock of suffering and debility which will make life a burden to him."

The story is told of a certain temperance lecturer who threw upon his screen the micro-organisms in a drop of water. Then on the slide he placed a minute portion of whisky. Instantly it put a quietus on all that swarming life. About to make his point, a voice from the rear shouted: "I'll never take another drink of water without a drop of whisky in it."

WHAT CAN IT MEAN

Quay, Dudley, Clarkson and Company

Have Cornered Minneapolis Hotel Rooms.

Anti-Harrison Delegates Will Be Cared for,

But Grandpa's Hat Can Not Get in.

A Righteous Howl Goes Up All Along the Line—Springer Means Business—Interesting News From Washington.

Washington, Jan. 4.—(Special)—There seems to be a kick all along the line regarding the Minneapolis hotel-keepers anent the republican national convention.

It seems that Mr. Clarkson, Mr. Quay, Mr. Dudley and other master minds of the republican national committee immediately set to work to secure all the hotel room in Minneapolis during the convention and dispose of it to their own satisfaction thereafter.

Washington newspaper correspondents who promptly telegraphed for accommodations to the leading hotels in Minneapolis immediately after the selection of that city for the meeting place of the convention have been curtly answered by the managers of the hotels there that the national committee would have to be consulted before accommodations could be granted.

This is very unusual.

As a general thing during national conventions, when hotels are crowded, the rules are like those of the barber-shop, "first come, first served."

Clarkson, however, for reasons no doubt, of his own, tried to monopolize all the hotel accommodations in Minneapolis and to dispose of them subsequently according to his own sweet will.

Ex-Postmaster-General Frank Hatton, now editor of the Washington Post, addressed a letter to the managers of the West hotel at Minneapolis that was very lively in its character. Mr. Hatton made application for accommodation for the members of his staff who were expected to report the convention's proceedings, and after long delay he was informed in a vague letter that it might be well for him to have some communication with the national committee.

Now Hatton knows every member of the national committee reasonably well. With some of them he has been acquainted for a number of years. He informed the proprietor of the West hotel that in his opinion several members of the republican national committee would make money out of the proceedings; that they would charter a whole hotel, or sundry rooms in a hotel, and then sub-let their leasehold out at good stiff prices.

There are evidently many indications that the national committee is unduly interfering with the general regulation of matters pertaining to the convention. The committee is trying to corner all the hotel accommodations to such an extent that Mr. Hatton in his letter sarcastically inquires if it would be necessary to have a ticket from a member of the republican national committee to obtain admittance to Minnapolis during the convention.

The executive committee of the republican national committee fully intends to nominate the next republican candidate for the presidency. There is no doubt about this. They have their plans made up and formulated. They will nominate Blaine if his doctors say he can take the nomination. If Blaine cannot take it they intend to nominate Alger. They think they can do it, but this will be seen later on.

* * *

Chairman Springer of the ways and means committee has taken charge of the committee room and begins like the proverbial new broom. Mr. Springer has ideas of his own, and furthermore has no hesitancy in making them known. He tosses precedent aside and does exactly what he thinks should be done.

Last congress the "ladies" reception room, a dark illy-ventilated room on the east side of the house, was, at the command of Speaker Reed, changed. The ladies who came to see members, simply to see them, were compelled to send their cards in from the statuary hall, a bright, light room where the congressman and his fair visitor could be watched by old Bill Allen, Rodger Sherman, Fred'k Muhlenberg, and even George Washington. The latter hardly counted, however, because his statue is of wood, carved out in sections, then fastened together and painted white. This painting process is done every year to make the vandal believe the statue is marble.

Anyway, cards had to be sent in from the statuary hall. The old room was used as a ways and means consulting room. Now Mr. Springer announces that the dark and gloomy room will be again given over to the ladies and others and the ways and means committee will confine itself to one room.

In the room of the committee he is going to cast aside the long mahogany table that has for years been surrounded by the brains of the lower house of congress and give each member a private desk. By placing these back to back less room will be occupied and each member will be more comfortable. The room is one of the largest and most convenient ones in the building and the proposed change in furniture will greatly improve its appearance. Mr. Springer has been and is daily the recipient of letters and telegrams commending his plan of campaign regarding the McKinley bill. He will attack it in small measures, but the ones to be considered first have not been determined upon. The impression is that wool will be first and an effort made to place it on the free list. The understanding is to have a caucus called immediately after the holiday recess and then the house itself will determine on what bills to push and the order in which it will be done. This will avoid a glut of bills asking for everything and insure a thorough committee discussion of the measures intended to be passed.

A peculiar state of affairs exists in certain towns in the Hocking Valley regarding the mail facilities, and Congressman Dungan has undertaken to straighten them out. There are two towns down there, separated only by a small river, and the postoffice in Malta, where they get the mail seven or eight times a week, is only about a quarter of a mile from the McConnellsville postoffice, where they only get the mail twice a week. Each town has about 1,200 inhabitants, and very naturally the people of McConnellsville are beginning to kick at this apparent neglect. It has only continued about six years, and they are beginning to get tired.

It appears that in the "palmy days" when there were no railroads through this section they both got the same services and were satisfied. Some years ago a railroad was run through the country and Malta became a station with daily mail service. Each day the McConnellsville sack was thrown off the train and the Malta postmaster would religiously hold it until the time came according to contract to hand the sacks over to the route agent. This time was only twice in seven days, and the McConnellsville people are beginning to tire of reading letters three and four days old. So Mr. Dungan has undertaken to secure daily service.

* * *

Undoubtedly some action will be taken by the present congress looking towards a reorganization of the pension bureau. Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, and Mr. Cooper, of Indiana, are hot on the trail. There is hardly a question but that the pension office is one of the most corrupt governmental bureaus, and that there is more chicancery going on in that bureau than in any other department of the government.

* * *

Republican correspondents here are losing a vast amount of sleep over the condition of Mr. Crisp. They fear he will not be able to preside to-morrow at the commencing of congress, and as no speaker pro tem has been named they seem to think the wheels of legislation will be blocked, as there are no rules yet adopted governing the house. If Speaker Crisp does not put in an appearance to-morrow the democratic majority will find a way to elect a temporary presiding officer, who will be fully able to master the situation.

EVE'S DAUGHTERS.

Marian Harland, on pages 103 and 445 of her popular work, "Eve's Daughters; or, Common Sense for Maid, Wife and Mother," says:

"For the aching back—should it be slow in recovering its normal strength—an Allcock's Porous Plaster is an excellent comforter, combining the sensation of the sustained pressure of a strong warm hand with certain tonic qualities developed in the wearing. It should be kept over the seat of uneasiness for several days—in obstinate cases, perhaps a fortnight.

"For pain in the back wear an Allcock's Porous Plaster constantly, renewing as it wears off. This is an invaluable support when the weight on the small of the back becomes heavy and the aching incessant."

SENSATIONAL SUIT.

Lima Men Sued for Money Alleged To Have Been Stolen.

Lima, O., Jan. 4—In 1882, $7,300 sent to the paymaster by the treasurer of the Lake Erie & Western road, was stolen from the United States express office here. No clue to the robbers was found, and the matter was dropped.

Yesterday suit was filed by Thomas Platt, president of the company, against ex-Chief of Police Wm. R. Calvin and his son Harmon, asking judgment against them for $7,300, with 6 per cent. interest from February 21, 1882, the date of the robbery. Wm. Calvin was city marshal at the time of the robbery. The case has caused a sensation. Both Calvin and his son are well thought of, and the latter is a director of the Ohio National bank.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

A VERY COMMON WANT.

"Out of sorts," "distrait," "the blues," these are familiar appellatives for uncomfortable, undefinable sensations, accompanied with lassitude, nervousness, indigestion. Poverty of the blood, to remedy which an effective stomachic persistently used is the paramount need, is conclusive evidence that the system is insufficiently nourished because—and for no other cause where organic disease does not exist—the food is not assimilated. Reinforce the flagging energies of the stomach, reform an irregular condition of the bowels, keep up a healthful secretion of the bile with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. For over thirty years this popular medicine has supplied the common want of the nervous invalid, the dyspeptic and of persons deficient in vitality, an efficient tonic. To its power of imparting strength is attributable its efficacy as a preventive of malaria and la grippe. Thoroughly effective is it too for rheumatism, kidney complaint and neuralgia.

After swallowing it hastily and without consideration, the animal will never touch another egg.

HEALTHY. HAPPY. WHY?

Is he a bright child? Does he look healthy and happy? He is bright, and he is both healthy and happy. He is the little son of Mrs. Henry T. Bowers, wife of the well-known contractor and builder, who resides in Dorchester avenue, South Boston. Mrs. Bowers has had quite an experience with her children, which experience we give in her own words, as follows:

"I have a little boy two and one-half years of age, the perfect picture of rugged health, and also a little girl of four. I attribute their good health and good temper to the use of Dr. Hand's Remedies.

I have used, as occasion required, the entire line, and have had very marked results from the Colic Cure, Cough and Croup Medicine, and the Pleasant Physic. I have never had any but good result from the use of any of them."

READY FOR A REVOLUTION

Garza Issues a Warlike Pronunciamento.

Mexicans Are Called to Arms at Once.

American Soldiers Rout the Outlaws on the Border—A Distinguished Prisoner Captured.

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 4.—The work of the United States troops in routing the Garza revolutionists on the border has so far been very successful, and Gen. David S. Stanley states that he believes that he can keep the Mexican offenders in subjection with the present military force. Another engagement took place Saturday near Fort Ringgold, the following account of which was received at military department headquarters here:

Second Lieutenant George T. Langhorn, of the Third cavalry, and his detachment of thirty troops with the sheriff of Duval county and a posse of United States deputy marshals have just arrived here with one prisoner.

The prisoner is Col. Publo Munaz, who is one of the leaders in the Garza movement. Lieutenant Langhorn reports that they struck a camp of revolutionists three miles from the Los Cuentites ranch and five miles from here.

The revolutionists ran, leaving everything as soon as they discovered the United States troops, and escaping into the dense chaparral.

It is not known that any of them were wounded, although many shots were fired after them as they dashed into the bushes in the vicinity. The capture of Col. Munaz was made. The horses and equipments of several revolutionists were captured, as were also two gross of ammunition, badges and many important papers.

Col. Publo Munaz, who was taken prisoner, is a prominent citizen of North Mexico. He will be tried in the federal court here upon the charge of violating the neutrality laws of this country. He is said to be possessed of considerable wealth.

Numerous copies of a proclamation were distributed last night in the Mexican quarter of the city. It was promulgated by Juan Antonio Flores, whose home is said to be at Monterey, Mex. He was appointed commander of Garza's so-called army of the north. 'Four weeks ago the proclamation is said to have been distributed in every city of Mexico and the towns all along the frontier last night. It is dated State of Nuevo Leon and is in Spanish. When translated it reads as follows:

A Proclamation.

Fellow citizens: As Mexicans we must not remain any longer as simple spectators of the revolutionary movement initiated on the frontier by Senor Catarino E. Garza, because he is basing his revolution on the holy principles of democracy and proclaiming thereby the liberty of the people. He has demonstrated to us that his political ideal of government rests on the pillar of the rights of the people.

Who is that worthy Mexican that does not love the freedom of his country? Is the Mexican the most miserable type of people in America?

No, a thousand times no. Bear in mind that we have had the example given us on different occasions that the Mexican was born to shed his blood on the field of the United States troops in routing of slavery.

It cannot be denied that the revolution has bounded without precedent into great prestige because its initiation has managed to establish an organization unknown in other internal revolutions.

It has managed to disprove and reproach with facts and not with false arguments the publications of the salaried press of Mexico. To conclude, it has established in the midst of political meetings and the movements of government troops on the northern frontier an insurrection on system and secret army worthy of the times of modern civilization.

To arms, to arms, Mexicans! Seek in the pages of modern history of our native state of Tamaulipas, the name and public life in his last years of General Servando Canales, and you will find in that dead patriot the prototype of democracy, the mute and eloquent hero, the bold director who spurned with patriotism the dictatorial dispositions of the supreme government with the constitution of 1857, which we now proclaim with arms in our hands.

General Canales demanded the freedom and sovereignty of the heroic state of Tamaulipas, when President Diaz, the same tyrant who now opposes us, threatened its sacred rights.

Where are those citizens of Tamaulipas who upheld the principles of those brave frontiersmen? Now is the time, fellow countrymen. The revolutionary standard calls that you may be covered with its shade. Mexicans, be convinced that the revolutionary spark has been kindled, and the blaze that will give us freedom is rapidly spreading throughout the whole of Mexico. All that is lacking to secure the dethronement of the tyrant Diaz is for all the frontiersmen to rise together and terminate the great work inaugurated by Catarina Garza. The attitude of the government of the United States with regard to the persecution of Garza and his men signifies nothing. Taking into consideration the indecorous propositions that the tyrant Diaz has been making to the United States government it may be that the American legislature will soon be convinced of the just reasons on which the present revolution is founded and protest against those exaggerated laws of neutrality which amount to nothing when placed before the cry of a nation seeking liberty. On the other hand a neighboring republic such as the United States ought not to uphold an autocratic chief. Mexicans to arms! He who writes this is a Mexican who loves the freedom of his country. Hurrah for the revolution; hurrah for Mexico free.

"Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer" by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful medicine so invigorates the system and enriches the blood that cold weather becomes positively enjoyable. Arctic explorers would do well to make a note of this.

MASS FOR DOM PEDRO.

London, Jan. 4.—A solemn requiem mass was celebrated to-day at St. James' church, this city, for the repose of the soul of the late Dom Pedro, ex-emperor of Brazil.

The Brazilian minister and the staff of the Brazilian legation were present.

At the close of the religious ceremonies, a message of condolence was forwarded to the Countess D'Eu, daughter of Dom Pedro.

SWEPT BY THE FLAMES.

Bloomington, Ill., Damaged by Fire.

Thirteen Houses on the Principal Business Street Destroyed—Bucket Brigade Powerless.

Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 4.—A portion of the business part of the town of Saybrook, 20 miles east of here, on the Lake Erie railway, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning.

The fire broke out in Mrs. Nettie Mahan's millinery store, on Lincoln street, and swept everything on that side of the street until it was checked at Shores & Travis' drug store.

Thirteen buildings were destroyed in two hours.

The town has no fire department and the flames were fought by a bucket brigade. Dr. J. A. Crigier, owner of 10 of the buildings, is the principal loser. The total loss is estimated at $30,000; insured for about one-half.

A DEAD PRINCE.

Funeral Services Over the Remains of the Late Victor Ferdinand.

London, Jan. 4.—The Prince of Wales and the Duke of Connaught were present to-day at the funeral of the late Prince Victor Ferdinand of Hohenlohe, count of Gleichen, nephew of Queen Victoria, who died on December 31, from cancer, complicated by an attack of influenza.

The funeral ceremonies took place at Sunningdale, near Windsor. Sir Henry Ponsonby, Queen Victoria's private secretary, represented her majesty, carrying a large wreath of flowers sent by the queen.

Emperor William of Germany, the ex-Empress Frederick, Prince Christian, Prince Henry of Battenburg, and the Marquis of Lorne were also represented at the funeral.

TO MAKE A REPUTATION.

M. Stanley and Wife Leap From a Bridge.

Daring Jump of a Man and Woman From a Bridge 110 Feet High Into the Ohio River.

Cincinnati, Jan. 4.—Meredith Stanley, who has gained local renown as a bridge jumper, took another leap, accompanied on this trip by his wife.

The announcement of the leap had attracted a large crowd to the Cincinnati and Covington suspension bridge crossing the Ohio river, but when the couple arrived in a closed carriage they found a squad of police scattered along the bridge waiting to prevent the perilous double act.

Stanley quietly ordered the carriage driver to the railroad bridge crossing the river a half a mile west. On reaching it, no police were found and only the ordinary stream of foot passengers and a number of men below witnessed the feat.

Stanley and wife alighted and walked to the center span of the great bridge. They hastily disrobed. Stanley wore beneath his street garments red silk tights, while his wife wore a sort of Bloomer costume.

Together they clambered over the rail and at the word from Stanley they jumped. Mrs. Stanley plunged off an instant before her husband and struck the water first. She lighted on her head and seemed slightly stunned.

Stanley, retaining his marvelous self-control, struck the water feet first and seemed to glide through the surface. Upon arising he swam to the aid of his wife, but she was already being assisted into one of the waiting skiffs by two men. Another boat picked up Stanley, and they landed together some distance below on the Ohio side.

The trip was Mrs. Stanley's first attempt, and the violent shock at striking the water greatly weakened her. She is confined to her bed, but is uninjured beyond a "general shaking up," as Stanley expressed it. Mrs. Stanley is quite a handsome young lady, dark-haired and bright-eyed.

Her maiden name was Belle Mason and she is aged 20, having been married to Stanley in 1888, while he was a gondolier at the exposition.

THE WAY TO GO.

You have seen California frequently mentioned in newspapers and magazines. Perhaps a friend has been there and writes enthusiastic letters back home about the climate and the fruits. It makes you anxious to see the country for yourself.

The time to go is in the fall and winter. Then work here is least pressing and California climate is most pleasing. The way to go is via Santa Fe route, on one of that line's popular, personally-conducted parties, leaving Chicago every Saturday evening and leaving Kansas City every Sunday morning.

Special agents and porters in attendance. Pullman tourist sleepers are used, furnished with bedding, mattresses, toilet articles, etc. Second-class tickets honored. Write to Geo. E. Gilman, Michigan Passenger Agent Santa Fe route, for folder describing these excursions.

HE CARRIED A GUN.

Dublin, Jan. 4.—Thomas Ryan, a passenger on the steamer Etruria from New York, was arrested on landing at Queenstown to-day on a charge of carrying a concealed pistol. Ryan is on the pension list of the United States army. The arrest is supposed to be owing to the unusual vigilance on account of the recent explosion in Dublin.

DID GOOD WORK.

Wapakoneta, O., Jan. 4.—(Special)—By prompt action of the fire department yesterday morning they saved this city from having a serious conflagration. The frame building owned by Mrs. Edward Meyer and occupied by George Richardson as a store, was discovered on fire. Little damage was done only by water. The building is situated in the heart of the city and is surrounded by other frame work. The wind was blowing a gale at the time.

A PERRYSBURG LADY

Shows What One Woman Can Do.

Miss Sarah Bloomfield Went to Dakota Five Years Ago and Took Up Land—Her Return.

As illustrative of what a woman can do when she just puts her mind on it, a few words about Miss Sarah Bloomfield, formerly of Perrysburg, will not be amiss. Miss Bloomfield is spending a month or two with her sisters in Perrysburg and friends in Toledo. She now hails from South Dakota, and is the owner of 160 acres of as fine a piece of land as man or woman ever set his or her foot upon.

Miss Bloomfield left Perrysburg five years ago, and with a resolute determination to succeed in the undertaking she had planned, went to then Dakota territory and took up a government grant, ten miles from Howard—the land above mentioned. She had a small house erected and there she has lived and prospered alone and unaided ever since. This is her first visit east.

This energetic lady has been blessed with exceptionally good luck. Her crops have always turned out well. The blizzards, and she has experienced a few, have left her unscathed; she has enjoyed continued good health, and last, but not at all least, she has had just as many offers of marriage as if she had remained in the east and posed in society's whirl.

Her first offer was from an elderly, wealthy, respectable and influential citizen of those parts, and, as the saying goes, he made no bones about it. He had heard of Miss Bloomfield's advent, so one fine morning he stalked into that lady's little kitchen, without the formality of an introduction, and blurted out:

"Say, miss, you don't want to get married, do you?"

"No, sir, I don't," emphatically.

"No offense, I hope, mum."

"None at all, sir; good morning."

And that's the way they do things in South Dakota. The elderly beau evidently was somewhat taken back at the refusal, for he afterwards said to some of his friends:

"What do you think—that 'ar fool woman up there refused me—me; think on't; why, I won't last long, and she might 'a had all my money; that fool woman.'

Miss Bloomfield was asked if she was not afraid to live out in the wilderness all alone. "Afraid?" she answered, "What of?" There are no tramps in South Dakota. Last year she raised hay and wheat, and the proceeds paid her expenses east and left a snug sum in the bank. Miss Bloomfield will take back help and implements to fully develop and work her land. This lady has shown pluck and enterprise, and is a credit to the Buckeye state she once called home.

TRIED TO END HIS DAYS.

M. de Maupassant Attempts Suicide.

He Fires a Lot of Blank Cartridges at His Head and Then Cuts Himself with a Knife.

Paris, Jan. 4.—A dispatch from Cannes, this morning, confirms the report that M. Guy de Maupassant, the well-known novelist, attempted to commit suicide while stopping at that place, on Friday night. He is not seriously injured, however.

Few details concerning the attempt are procurable at present. It is said, however, that M. De Maupassant fired the entire contents of a revolver at his head and that he would undoubtedly have killed himself had it not been for the fact that his valet, acting upon the instructions of the family, who were alarmed at the conduct of the distinguished litterateur during his recent sickness, had taken the precaution to draw the bullets out of the cartridges in the revolver which M. De Maupassant kept within reach.

Failing to take his own life by shooting, the novelist obtained possession of a knife and tried to cut his throat. He was only able to inflict a slight wound upon himself before he was overpowered.

GIVE YOUR BOY A CHANCE.

A Boost in Life That Will Help Him and Won't Cost You Much.

You can't build anything unless you first have a foundation, whether it's a ten story hotel or a success. Neither a house nor a man can reach any great height unless it has something to stand on. You build a foundation for your home in order that your family may be protected. Now, is it not equally wise to build a foundation for a success for your children in order that their future, too, may be protected.

Education is the only sure foundation which will elevate character and brains to the height where their possessor can reach the fruit which nature intended should be his. The money of your neighbor can give his boy a college education; but it is not the teaching that a boy receives but the learning that counts in the race of life. You know it is the knowledge that you acquired by puzzling out problems yourself, and not that which was given you offhand by a perfunctory teacher that has stood you in good stead.

And because you cannot to-day afford to send your boy to college you need not fret, for a prize has been placed within your reach, which while retaining him within your own home circle away from any possibility of contaminating influence, gives him access to all the information that he could secure within college walls. The Encyclopedia Britannica is the learning of the world concentrated; it has all there is to a college education except the college buildings and the "larks of the students." This encyclopedia can be secured by you for your children free of cost. Is it not worth securing? May be you were a college man yourself. Then you'll find this encyclopedia a valuable aid in your life work. It is the surest stand that vaulting ambition can have.

SHE CHICAGOED HIM.

In Other Words, Shut Him Out Without a Cent.

A Russian Admiral Collides with a Pretty Woman in a Crowd, Much to His Sorrow.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Vice-Admiral Paul De Nezienoff of the Russian navy, friend of the czar and commander of the Russian fleet in Chinese waters, will remember his present visit to Chicago for many years.

Notwithstanding Admiral Nezienoff's known skill and ability as a strategist, some trim, clipper-built Clark street maiden hauled up close under his port quarter about 11 oclock at night, Saturday, and lightered his cargo of valuables to her own deck in artistic style.

The doughty sea warrior had his pockets picked and every sou markee he owned was taken. His watch, purse, letter of credit, letters of introduction, official credentials, railroad and steamship ticket to Paris and even the checks for his luggage were deftly abstracted by a fair vision which the admiral remembers to have leaned half fondly against in the throng emerging from the Chicago opera house.

The admiral attended the performance and at its close walked east on Washington street to Clark. Soon after passing the corner of Clark and Washington he by mere chance put his hand in his trousers pocket and found it empty and flat, whereas before it had swelled out with money like the sail of his own flagship before a spanking breeze.

He remembered that in the crowd on Washington street a lady, who seemed to be trying to make progress through the jostling mass of men and women, brushed against him quite accidentally several times.

It seems as if some surge of the crowd threw her against the distinguished Russian, and on one occasion the throng seemed to whirl around these two and hold them together.

A bright glance from speaking, roguish eyes and a winning smile thanked the tall, portly gentleman for extending his strong, right arm and holding the crowd at bay a moment till the lady had found a pathway through it with all his valuables.

The police have little hope of recovering the stolen money.

REMARKABLE CLUB LIFE.

A Wonderful Quintet Meets in New York.

For Forty-Eight Years They Have Assembled and Dined Together on New Year's Eve.

New York, Jan. 4.—(Special)—A most interesting and remarkable reunion of five gentlemen took place at the Everett house in this city New Year's eve.

Forty-eight years ago five young men residing in Concord, N. H., agreed to meet on the last night of each year for an annual supper, to be given by each one according to age, and at such place as he might designate.

The compact by which they were bound together was a very short one.

Their principal object was social enjoyment, but they were serious enough to agree that they would not use intoxicating liquor as a beverage or engage in games of chance.

They promised to attend each other's weddings and funerals. They were all in time married and pursued their different business callings in different parts of the world. But the annual meetings and supper were never forgotten or omitted, and they celebrated their forty-eighth annual festival last Thursday.

All were present and in good health. There is only five years difference in their ages, the youngest being 67 and the oldest 72. It is believed that such a record is unmatched in club history where the original members have all survived so many years. There has been only a single death in any of their immediate families in all this time.

The names of the gentlemen composing this mystic five are the Hon. J. C. A. Hill, and Geo. A. Blanchard, of Concord, N. H.; the Hon. Chas. A. Tufts, of Dover, N. H.; Joseph Tufts, of Washington, D. C., and Dr. Wm. W. Hurd, of this city.

A great many persons who do not personally know any of these gentlemen, as well as their many friends, are interested in the remarkable record of their annual gatherings, and all join in wishing that it may be long before their ranks are broken and a vacant chair is seen at their festive board.

PEACE WITH DIGNITY

Is What the Chilian Cabinet Wants.

The Offensive Note From Minister Matta Will Be Withdrawn and the War Clouds Will Scatter.

New York, Jan. 4.—The Santiago correspondent of the Herald says that the new cabinet is generally approved by the press and people of Chili.

There was some reluctance on the part of some of the members to accept office because the exact situation of affairs between the United States and Chili was not known.

If an amicable arrangement can be made whereby Chili would not be humiliated there is a disposition on the part of the new government to come to terms with the United States. The note sent by Minister of Foreign Affairs Matta, to the Washington government which caused such offence, may be withdrawn.

It is stated that President Montt has been advised to withdraw this note and the question will be taken up by the cabinet at an early date.

It is said that, presumably acting under instructions from his government British Minister Kennedy has been advising President Montt's government to make reasonable terms with the United States.

The German minister, Herr Gutschmid, has offered the services of his government as arbitrator between the two countries, but it is not thought that the proposition will be entertained owing to the continued insults to our legation.

ANOTHER NOTE

Will Be Received From the Chilian Cabinet.

Matta Was Altogether Too Gay and His Fellow Officers Will Proceed to Squelch Him.

New York, Jan. 4.—The Herald's Valparaiso dispatch this morning states that Minister of Foreign Affairs Matta sent his now famous dispatch in reply to the demands of the United States government without submitting it to President Montt or the other members of the cabinet. This information is procured, the correspondent says, on reliable authority. The present ministry, it is added, is preparing another document as a substitute for Senor Matt's undiplomatic letter.

Valparaiso, Jan. 4.—It is stated here that Emperor William will be proposed as an arbitrator in the Baltimore case.

DA GOODA MONK

Is Disgusted with Toledo and Hies Himself to Tiffin.

A good-natured Italian of the organ and monk species was awaiting a train to bear him to the music-loving and intellectual city of Tiffin. He had been in Toledo some weeks, but somehow or other his music was not appreciated, or at least the money was not forthcoming, and he thought it best under the circumstances to move on to more lucrative fields. He relieved himself regarding Toledo as follows:

"Dees Toled' be da greata place, hav' eight mile front ona da wat' and plenta boat but shes no lik, de grind org' Italia man; shes no give da cen'. Dees pepe here can no tella da gooda tune from noder one.

"I mak' da gooda muse, gand op', nica piece, Il Trayatore, Rinaldo Paesello and Zingarella but dees pepe here shes no understand; shes tink da org' be broke.

"Da pepe here like da cheap org', Down went McGinty, Leeta An' Roon', and some noder one just like dis.

"Da monk kno' more about da muse dan dees Toled' pepe. You tak' a gooda monk and mak'a go 'round wid cheap org' and one week dees monk tak' sick and mak' da die.

"Da poor Italia man spend a lota mun for'a da good org' nica monk and tak' the trob' to come to Toled' and no one give da cen'.

"Some day Italia man get mad' no come to Toled' den dees pepe shes feel bad and mak da cry."

THE TOLEDO DELEGATES

To the Labor Assembly at Columbus Were Instructed Yesterday.

A meeting of the Central Labor union was held yesterday at which delegates to the Trades and Labor assembly, which opens at Columbus to-morrow, were instructed. The delegates will use their influence for the adoption of a resolution condemning capital punishment as a preventive of crime and asking the legislature to abolish it. The machinists throughout the state will be encouraged to organize.

The local delegates will use their influence in the matter of having a law passed in Ohio making it illegal to hire Pinkerton detectives. The assembly will also ask congress to pass a law protecting trade union labels. The delegates leave this evening for Columbus.

PECULIAR LAW SUIT.

A Murdered Man's Wife Wants Her Rights.

Friends of the Murderer Raised a Sum of Money and Now Refuse to Give It to Her.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 4.—One of the strangest suits ever filed in this city was brought Saturday by the wife of a murdered man to recover a large sum of money raised by the friends of the man who did the killing, and promised her on conditions that are not set forth in the petition.

About four months ago Robert Skillman, a traveling man from this city, was shot at Columbus, Ind., by Lambert Goldsmith, also of Louisville.

Skillman left a wife and two children in poor circumstances. Friends of Goldsmith, mostly Hebrews, raised a fund of about $2,000, which was to be given the widow. This money was originally invested in a home, but the house did not suit Mrs. Skillman and was sold for what it cost.

The friends of Goldsmith, after this, became uneasy and decided not to give the money to Mrs. Skillman until after the trial of Goldsmith. The money, meantime, had been placed in trust. Mrs. Skillman has now brought suit to secure possession of the fund.

WILL CLEVELAND DECLINE?

Hill Wants the People to Think He Will.

David Is a Shrewd Politician, but He Cannot Smoke Out Mr. Cleveland in This Way.

New York, Jan. 4.—A special dispatch to the Press from Washington says an intimation has come from Senator-elect David B. Hill that ex-President Cleveland will decline to have his name go before the democratic convention for the presidency this year.

MORE TROUBLE IN SAMOA.

Malietoa Is Again Growing Troublesome.

He Is at the Head of Two Hundred Warriors Marching on the Headquarters of Mataafa.

London, Jan. 4.—Dispatches received here from Sidney, N. S. W., announce that there has been further trouble in Samoa and that additional trouble is brewing in those islands.

The Sydney advices state that information has just been received there from Samoa to the effect that another bloody war among the natives is imminent.

It is added that King Malietoa Laupepa, the monarch who was restored to power on Nov. 9, 1889, at the head of about two hundred followers, was as the news referred to left Samoa, in the act of attacking Lunu, where the Mataafas were in garrison.

The rebels were said to be short of ammunition and a complete victory for King Malietoa was anticipated.

This, it was said, would be likely to add fuel to the fire and be another step in the direction of additional warfare among the natives.

Don't be hoodwinked by dealers who pretend that they can sell Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines at less than these long-established prices: Golden Medical Discovery (for Liver, Blood and Lung Diseases), $1.00 per bottle. Favorite Prescription (for woman's weaknesses and ailments), $1.00 per bottle. Pleasant Pellets (for the liver), 25 cents per vial. Compound Ext. of Smart-Weed, 50 cents per bottle. GAS AND ELECTRIC LIGHT TAXES, AND SPECIAL IMPROVEMENT ASSESSMENTS, NOT INCLUDED IN ABOVE RATES.

Any person charged with taxes on the duplicate of the county may at his or her option pay the full amount of such taxes on or before the 20th day of December, 1891, but is REQUIRED BY LAW to pay all the regular road tax, ALL FORMER DELINQUENT TAXES, and one-half of all other taxes and assessments charged on the duplicate of 1891, on or before the 20th day of December, 1891, and the remaining half on or before the 20th day of June, 1892.

Prompt payment should be made to avoid the FIVE PER CENT. PENALTY IMPOSED BY LAW ON ALL TAXES NOT PAID BY THE TIMES SPECIFIED ABOVE.

All persons having failed to pay their taxes last June will see that they are paid before the 20th day of December, so that their property may not be ADVERTISED AS DELINQUENT and offered for sale on the third Tuesday in January next, and thereby save trouble and expense.

If the tax on the real estate is not paid during the December collection, the same will be charged with the penalty required by law, and the amount, together with the other half of said tax, must be paid by the 20th day of June, 1892. In case of failure to pay the December payment of taxes on personal property, then the whole amount becomes due, with 5 per cent. penalty, and the Treasurer is required to collect by distraint or otherwise.

Tax payers are requested to bring their last receipts. All road receipts must be presented during the payment of December tax, as they cannot be taken afterwards.

OFFICE HOURS: 8 A. M. TO 12 M. AND 1 TO 4 P. M., SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS EXCEPTED.

THE CHOCOLATE GIRL.

Possibly most of the people who are familiar with the picture of the chocolate girl, so long used as the registered trademark of Walter Baker & Co., think it a creation of some artist's fancy. On the contrary, it is a portrait, the portrait of a very pretty Viennese woman, and there is a romantic story attached to it. It seems that some years ago a young German student of noble birth fell in love with the pretty chocolate girl who served him with this delicious beverage in a Vienna cafe. She was a respectable girl and he an honorable gentleman; and he married her. He felt proud of her humble origin, and had her portrait painted by a famous German artist in the picturesque costume she wore when he first met her; and this portrait is now among the most valued art treasures of the government in the Dresden gallery.

THE MUSLIN UNDERWEAR DISPLAY

THE LION STORE!

And such a rush for it never occurred at any previous sale. The opening day sales were exactly four times larger than they were one year ago. It's no wonder. We are not surprised. The reasons are plain. Our customers quick to recognize values.

Did you ever see such a bargain? Children's Drawers for 10, 12, 15, 18, 20 and 25c. Ages 2 to 11 years. Excellent Muslin, Lock Stitch, three pleats, wide band, stud button holes. Would you make them for the price? The muslin is worth more.

Ten styles Corset Covers 25 cents each. This one exact as cut only 25 cents. Some high necks, others low. Some cut square, others V shape

2,000 pairs Drawers and Chemise at 25c. Excellent Muslin nicely trimmed, well made, perfect shapes.

At 50 cents each over 7,000 well made, beautifully trimmed Skirts, Drawers, Chemise, Gowns and Corset Covers.

At 85 cents, $1.00 and $1.25 we have the greatest value ever offered in Muslin Underwear.
